

Christmas Boat Parades Make For Merry Fun on the Water

Where Santa's choice of transportation floats instead of flies!

Ring in the holidays this year with your mates at a Christmas boat parade. Dozens of boats of all sizes will be floating down rivers and coastal waterways decorated with thousands of brightly colored lights this season. Most events are free and make for a fun family outing which is sure to become a yearly tradition. We've gathered some popular parades from Texas, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Florida but look for one setting sail on a river, waterway, or ocean near you this Christmas season!
