Attendees can mix and match unique museums to fully immerse themselves in historical explorations. Highlights include the U.S. Army Heritage & Education Center which features interpretive and interactive exhibits (including the one-mile outdoor Army Heritage Trail) that tell the story of the soldier; the seasonal Appalachian Trail Museum which is the only museum in the country dedicated solely to hiking; and the Rolls Royce Museum which displays a small collection of Rolls Royce and Bentley motorcars from older models to modern versions. Best of all, most of these attractions are free.

OUTDOOR RECREATION

With over 54,000 acres, 200 miles of trails, three state parks, two states forests, and scenic waterways, attendees can discover and explore a serene and stunning landscape. Highlights include the 13-mile Cumberland Valley Rail Trail; the iconic Appalachian Trail with the midpoint located in Pine Grove Furnace State Park; and Waggoner's Gap Hawk Watch, one of the best locations in Pennsylvania to watch the fall hawk migration. There is no charge for entrance to any of our state parks or forests and they are in close proximity to our downtowns.

CULTURAL GEMS

There's a reason Cumberland Valley has been consistently voted one of the Top 10 towns in America for craft lovers by American Craft Week. Our specialty shops feature locally-made artwork and artisan crafts that reflect the rich heritage and lively local arts scene. Must-stop locations include Meadowbrooke Gourds, the largest gourd crafting facility in the United States, and Village Artisans Gallery, featuring a wonderfully eclectic selection of traditional and contemporary fine American crafts housed in a renovated circa 1875 brick church.
