DANVILLE RIVER DISTRICT

Once bustling with factories and warehouses, The River District of Danville, Virginia, has undergone a remarkable revitalization that has reimagined the area as a center for community life and engagement. Featuring artisanal restaurants, boutique and vintage shopping, community events and more, the River District weaves a dynamic tapestry of culture, sustainability, and community, prominently positioned along the scenic Dan River. This rejuvenated district offers a welcoming and lively environment for residents and visitors alike while fostering both social and economic growth within the Dan River Region. Accredited in 2023 by Main Street America and Virginia Main Street, The River District is melding the past with the present to provide a vibrant economic core for Danville.
