

Art Galleries

Dayton Murals

Dayton Art Institute

Schuster Performing Arts Center

Dayton Ballet

Visual Art for Every Palette

Awake the artist within during this tour that is sure to stimulate the visual senses and get your creative juices flowing!

DAY ONE

MORNING | Start the morning at The Contemporary, recognized as one of the region's leading contemporary gallery spaces and artists' organizations. 118 N. Jefferson Street, 937-224-3822

From the comfort of your motor coach enjoy a driving city mural tour highlighting various decorative collections.

PNC Arts Annex - Experience unique studio classes, workshops, performance events, master classes and a vibrant gallery/lobby space. 46 W. 2nd Street, 937-228-7591

LUNCH | Enjoy lunch at Leo Bistro, a fast casual-concept eatery inside the Dayton Art Institute. 456 Belmonte Park North, 937-223-4278

AFTERNOON | The Dayton Art Institute is recognized as one of the Midwest's premier fine arts museums. Spend the afternoon enjoying the collection which spans 5,000 years of art history. Leave time to browse the Museum Store. 456 Belmonte Park North, 937-223-4278

EVENING | Relax under towering palm trees in the glass-enclosed multi-story atrium of the Schuster Performing Arts Center for a delicious dinner at Citilites. 1 W. 2nd Street, Downtown, 937-222-0623

After dinner, consider taking in a performance (Broadway Show, Dayton Ballet, Dayton Opera, Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra, numerous varied show series—group discounts and special tours are available) at the renowned Cesar-Pelli designed Schuster Performing Arts Center 2,300 seat Mead Theater.

Visit ticketcenterstage.com

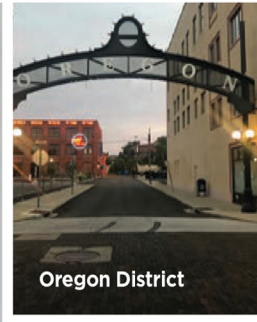

DAY TWO

MORNING | It's time to do some art-hopping through Dayton's various art galleries. Wear your comfortable shoes and enjoy any of the following—

- 48 High Street Gallery
48 High Street, 937-228-4532
- Edward A. Dixon Gallery
12 S. Ludlow Street, 937-985-2115
- The McMilan Gallery
Enjoy a variety of art shows and special events
1906 Brown Street, 937-829-3106
- Front Street Studio Gallery
A gallery with "gifts and art from the heart" this space features approximately 20 artists, including Mike Elsass and Loretta Puncer working in various mediums.
1001 E. 2nd Street
- Dutoit Gallery
A co-operative gallery run by its artist members.
1001 E. 2nd Street, 937-952-0246
- Willis "Bing" Davis Art Studio and Ebonnia Gallery
Contemporary African-American artwork created by nationally-acclaimed Willis "Bing" Davis.
1135 W. 3rd Street, 937-223-2290
- Vessels
Pottery shop and workspace for local potter David Kirchner.
227 N. Main Street, 937-424-5452

Mike Elsass at the Front Street Gallery

Oregon District

LUNCH | Enjoy lunch at any of these popular local independent group-friendly restaurants located near the galleries listed above

- Dublin Pub

300 Wayne Avenue, 937-224-7822

- Wheat Penny Oven and Bar

515 Wayne Avenue, 937-496-5268

AFTERNOON | The K12

Gallery & TEJAS is a regional visual arts center offering innovative visual arts programs for all ages.

341 S. Jefferson Street, 937-461-5149

EVENING | Wander the

Oregon District and take in dinner at any of several independent, group-friendly restaurants

- Jay's Seafood

225 E 6th Street, 937-222-2892

- View 162

33 E. 5th Street, 937-224-0800

After dinner, wander the Oregon District and explore the various night clubs and unique shops. Fifth Street between Wayne Avenue and Jefferson Street.

Front Street Gallery

Jay's Seafood

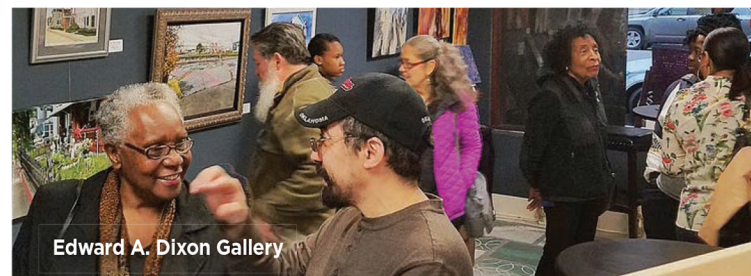

K-12 Gallery & TEJAS

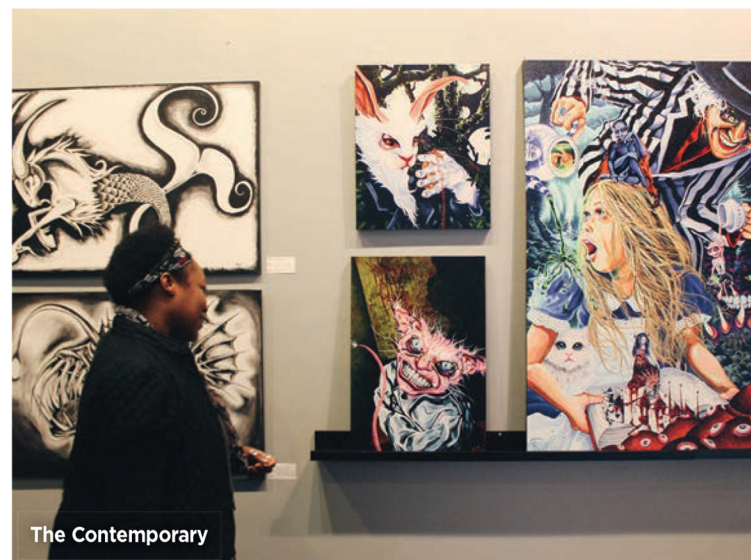

Dublin Pub

Willis "Bing" Davis Art Studio and Ebonnia Gallery

Edward A. Dixon Gallery

The Contemporary

CONTACT

Sonya Harchaoui, Sales Manager
Dayton Convention & Visitors Bureau
937-226-8281 | 800-221-8235
sharchaoui@daytoncvb.net