

eNewsletter Theme: Hidden Gems

Subject Line: Discover the Hidden Gems on Your Next Daytona Beach Getaway

Daytona Beach is loaded with well-known landmarks like its famous white-sand beaches, Daytona International Speedway and the Daytona Beach Boardwalk & Pier. It's also home to a collection of wonderful attractions, that while lesser known, offer plenty of charm and appeal.

On your next Daytona Beach getaway, go off the beaten path by checking out these five hidden gems in the area.

Meet — and even touch — the area's underwater inhabitants

Ponce Inlet's Marine Science Center offers a fun way to learn about some of the area's fascinating underwater inhabitants such as sea turtles and stingrays — and visitors who are brave enough can even touch a few. DIVE IN

A Picture-Perfect Destination

The only museum in Florida dedicated to photography, Daytona State College's Southeast Museum of Photography features rotating and permanent exhibits depicting the area's culture, history, artistry and scenery in photos. LEARN MORE

The Historic Home of a Civil Rights and Educational Icon

Learn more about the life and accomplishments of local hero Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune — a renowned educator, civil rights leader and the founder of Bethune-Cookman University — at the Mary McLeod Bethune Home & Gravesite. TAKE THE TOUR

A Unique Boutique

Located in beautiful downtown Ormond Beach, Dunn's Attic is an out-of-the-ordinary shopping destination filled with antique furniture, unique collectibles, handmade gifts and other fabulous finds. While browsing you can enjoy delicious food at Rosie's Café. SEE WHAT'S IN STORE

A Sweet Surprise

Named one of TripAdvisor's top 10 Sweetest Attractions in the U.S., Angell & Phelps Chocolate Factory lets visitors learn how chocolate is made — and get a taste of the delicious, handmade fruits of their labor. TAKE THE TASTY TREK

To access destination images, visit the Daytona Beach Media Gallery and register.