

Arts and Culture Scene in Daytona Beach Alive with Spring Events

If you enjoy a wide range of arts and cultural pursuits then you will find a plethora of attractions and activities this spring in the Daytona Beach area — from acclaimed museums and galleries to fun festivals and events and so much more.

The Museum of Arts & Sciences in Daytona Beach is a must-see for cultural enthusiasts. The Smithsonian-affiliated museum features a vast array of permanent collections, a state-of-the art planetarium, and a hands-on science center for children.

The Daytona Beach area is also home to an impressive collection of historic sites, an eclectic performing arts scene and even a mural trail.

If you're ready to dive into the Daytona Beach area's arts and culture scene — and world-famous beaches — click on the button below to start planning today!

EMBRACE THE ARTS THIS SPRING

Megalodon, The Largest Shark That Ever Lived

Through July 21, enter the world of Megalodon, the gigantic prehistoric shark that once commanded the world's oceans! Be consumed with awe walking through a full-scale sculptural replica of the 60-foot-long apex predator, and explore the life of this fantastic ancient creature.

MORE>

Monthly Art Walks in Daytona Beach and Ormond Beach

Stroll along Beach Street in beautiful downtown Daytona Beach on the first Friday of each month.

MORE>

Or, celebrate art and culture on the first Saturday of the month along Granada Boulevard in Ormond Beach.

MORE>

Cultvue Photography Exhibition-We Are Art

Through May 14, the Cultvue Photography Exhibition goes beyond the mere display of aesthetically pleasing portraits. Their commitment lies in creating a platform where art serves to broaden the inspirations, possibilities, and unity of the upcoming generation.

MORE>