www.visitgreensburg.com

Welcome! For more than 150 years the Decatur County Courthouse Tower Tree has been central to our community and its identity—rooted and growing. From festivals to athletic tournaments, award-winning schools to business-friendly incentives, there is so much to explore for both residents and visitors alike. Greensburg, Decatur County provides all the benefits of a welcoming, close-knit community, yet is set conveniently within an hour of both Indianapolis and Cincinnati, so we're located right at the intersection of small-town living and big-city activities. Come to the Visitor Center or check out our website to see everything we have to offer. We're so happy you're here!
