WELCOME

TO GREENSBURG
DECATUR COUNTY, INDIANA

Well Connected. Well Positioned.

Greensburg, Decatur County offers all the benefits of a friendly, close-knit community. At the same time, the fact that we're within an hour of both Indianapolis and Cincinnati means we're conveniently located at the intersection of small-town living and big-city activities.

One Attraction Towers Above the Rest.

For more than a 150 years, the Tower Tree has been central to our community and its identity. Of course, it's a highly visible, Atlas-Obscura-worthy attraction, but it's not the only thing we have going for us. From festivals to athletic tournaments, award-winning schools to business-friendly incentives, Greensburg, Decatur County has so much to offer.

"Whether you're a lifelong resident, a visitor just passing through, or a manufacturer looking to relocate...

We're happy to have you here!"

GREENSBURG, DECATUR COUNTY

Rooted in Agriculture. Built for Business.

Founded just six years after Indiana became a state, Decatur County has deep roots in agriculture and is quickly becoming home to businesses and industries that want access to our nearby highways, low property taxes, and available workforce.

There is cross-organizational support and momentum for continued growth in all aspects of our local economy.

A nice place to raise a family. And...

As with many small towns, people often move back home to be close to family, so their kids can grow up near their cousins or grandparents. And Greensburg is no different.

"A nice place to raise a family" tops the list of reasons many people choose to live where they live. Greensburg is continuing to work on ways to grow this family-friendly reputation, while adding new attractions and amenities to attract diverse groups of people.

A place to get involved- and make an impact.

If you live or work in Greensburg, Decatur County, you have every opportunity to be as actively involved as you want to be.

Thanks to the true spirit of community and support of our residents, our small town has become a vibrant, desirable place to live, work, and visit.

Small Town. Big Community.

We're a community that works hard.
Even after the nine to five is done,
you'll see that the work
doesn't stop there.

What really makes Decatur County
a vibrant, desirable place to live, work and play is the true spirit of community and cross-generational support. Without the help of our wonderful community and its volunteers, our annual events would not be possible.

EVENTS

In the summer you'll want to visit the 4-H Fair for lemonade shake-ups, ice cream twists, fish sandwiches, and plenty of family entertainment. Grab a handful of tickets and take the kids for a spin on several classic carnival rides. Don't forget to visit the Farmer's Market on Friday afternoons for fresh locally grown produce!

In the fall be sure to come to the Tree City Fall Festival, arguably our biggest event that has been coming back year after year since 1979. Here you'll find live music, parades, car shows, and the crowning of Miss Tree City. Past festivals have even featured a Memorial 5K and Chili Cookoffs.

For a true rural Indiana experience, be sure to put the annual Power of the Past on your list and take in the history of decades of farm equipment and machinery.

For family-friendly holiday fun, come to the Holiday Walk and experience winter magic in the form of bright lights and horse-drawn carriage rides. It's said that Santa even makes an appearance!

We have something to celebrate each unique season and plenty of family-friendly activities you won't want to miss.

TREE CITY

A Rich and Vibrant History

For more than a century, the Tower Tree has been central to our community's identity as a symbol of growth. This highly visible, Atlas-Obscure-worthy attraction grows at an altitude of 110 feet above the historic Courthouse lawn. Through the years, new generations of trees have sprouted up through the silt and soil in a hole in the roof of the clock tower. For more than 150 years, there has been a tree perched atop the Courthouse making it a phenomenon to behold.

THINGS TO DO

For a small town, our shopping scene is both dynamic and diverse. From vintage shops and boutiques to studios and galleries full of creative expression, you'll find what you need to thrive here in Greensburg, Indiana.

SHOPPING

Many of our shops and businesses are locally owned and operated. Support small businesses and our local economy and be met with open hearts and a truly one-of-a-kind shopping experience.
