

ELEVATE YOUR NEXT EVENT

CHECK OUT WHAT'S NEW IN DENVER

HOTELS

- Nearly 50,000 hotel rooms in the metro area, representing all brands and price points
- The 157-room Element Hotel, by Marriott near downtown (Opening 2019)
- The 233-room Hilton Garden Inn Union Station (Opening 2019)
- The 206-room Home2 Suites by Hilton in Downtown (Opening 2019)
- The 176-room Tru by Hilton in downtown (Opening 2019)

ACCESSIBILITY

- A new commuter rail line runs between Denver International Airport and Denver Union Station. For just $10.50, the train whisks attendees into the heart of downtown.
- Denver International Airport has added new international nonstop flights from London (Gatwick and Heathrow), Paris, Zürich and Panama City.
- In 2018, Skytrax ranked Denver International Airport the top U.S. airport in the world.

DESTINATION APPEAL

- 300 days of annual sunshine and a mild climate make Denver a great year-round meeting destination.
- Denver's dining scene was recently featured in the latest season of "Top Chef" and named by Zagat as one of the most exciting food cities in the country.
- Denver's rockstar chefs are committed to using the freshest locally sourced ingredients. Don't miss Avanti F&B or The Source, two collective food halls garnering national recognition.
- Unique offsite venues like Red Rocks, the Denver Art Museum and the History Colorado Center will give your meetings a fresh perspective.

GREEN CITY

- Denver is the first destination to receive ASTM/APEX Level Two certification for sustainable meetings.
- The Colorado Convention Center is LEED Gold Certified with a dedicated sustainable programs manager and 30,000 square feet of solar panels on the roof.
- There are three LEED Certified hotels downtown: Westin Denver International Airport Hotel, SpringHill Suites Denver Downtown at Metro State and Embassy Suites Denver Downtown.

LEARN MORE AND START PLANNING YOUR DENVER MEETING
TODAY AT VISITDENVER.COM/CONVENTIONS