Dear Members of the Denver Gay Games 2030 Bid Team,

I hope this letter finds you well. On behalf of the Arvada Economic Development Association (AEDA), I am writing to express our enthusiastic support for your bid to host the Gay Games in 2030. We believe that Denver would be an excellent host city for this prestigious event, and we are excited about the possibility of showcasing our community's commitment to inclusivity, diversity, and athleticism. We are eager to collaborate with the Denver Gay Games 2030 Bid Team and other local stakeholders to assist in any way possible to make this event a resounding success. As an economic development entity, we are excited about the opportunity that an event like this can bring to our community, and the positive economic impact for our area.

We commend your efforts in promoting equality and unity through sports and cultural events. We believe that hosting the Denver Gay Games 2030 would not only bring tremendous pride to our community but also leave a lasting legacy of inclusivity and diversity in sports.

Thank you for considering our support, and we look forward to the opportunity to contribute to the success of the Denver Gay Games 2030. Please do not hesitate to contact me directly at ipetrykowska@arvada.org if you have any questions or need further information.

Sincerely,
