There is no way that all the family fun in Greater Des Moines could be contained in a two-day itinerary. You'll need multiple trips (or perhaps a summer) to fit in all of this merrymaking, so plan accordingly. Mix and match ideas to create various “funtineraries,” so that you’ll never have to hear your kids (or spouse) lament “I'm boooooooored” ever again.

DON'T MISS THESE SEASONAL ATTRACTIONS AND EVENTS

Des Moines Art Festival (late June)
- One of the top art festivals (free!) in the entire country, this three-day celebration downtown has just as much fun stuff for the little ones.
- Creativity Zone where littles can paint, draw, and do all sorts of arts and crafts.

Iowa State Fair (mid-August)
- The Iowa State Fair is a bucket list item that USA Weekend ranked ahead of Disneyland for summer fun.
- There’s fun for the whole family, with concerts, giant slides, amusement rides, animals, parades, contests, livestock competitions, and of course, over 80 foods on a stick.

Center Grove Orchard and Geisler Farms (September/October)
- Popular pumpkin patches and apple orchards with activities, prepared foods, and general stores.
- Includes everything from potato sack slides, corn mazes, and sunflower meadows to hayrides, pumpkin patches, and cider donuts.

Holiday Festivals and Lights (November/December)
- Kick things off with the East Village Promenade and Jingle in the Junction with shopping, carriage rides, caroling, and Santa!
- Month long light displays include Jolly Holiday Lights (the largest display in the State) at Adventureland and Santa’s Rock N’ Lights at Living History Farms.
