

MADE POSSIBLE
IN LEHIGH VALLEY

Unforgettable memories are made possible in Lehigh Valley, Pennsylvania. Explore a region that is accessible by major highways connecting to Philadelphia and New York City, making Lehigh Valley the ideal stop on your next Mid-Atlantic roadtrip.

Set amid gentle hills and charming countrysides, Lehigh Valley is home to Allentown, Bethlehem, and Easton, as well as dozens of small towns and picturesque boroughs.

Home to a few of the world's favorite brands such as Crayola®, Martin Guitars, and Mack Trucks, Lehigh Valley has an impressive range of attractions. Steeped in pre-Colonial, Early American, and Industrial history, Bethlehem not only has a National Historic Landmark District but recently was named to the U.S. Tentative List for World Heritage Designation.

Lehigh Valley offers up a variety of lodging options to fit your lifestyle. Enjoy relaxing getaways to charming B&Bs including the rustic Glasbern, situated on a 100+ acre sustainable farm. Experience the heart of the Christmas City at the Historic Hotel Bethlehem, artfully restored to its original 1920s splendor. Or, opt for a bit of modern luxury at the full-service Wind Creek® Bethlehem casino and resort or the Renaissance® Allentown Hotel, located in the center of the Queen City's resurging downtown.

When it comes to dining, foodies will find Lehigh Valley to be quite a surprise. Shop for local goods at the Easton Farmers' Market, the oldest outdoor market in the country. Enjoy fine dining with locally-sourced ingredients at Bolete, led by James Beard nominee Chef Lee Chizmar. Quench your thirst at one (or two) of Lehigh Valley's 20+ breweries, 5 distilleries, and 20+ wineries.

RELIVE THE HISTORY

Founded in 1741, Bethlehem was the first well-established Moravian Church settlement in the Americas. Of the 20 historic sites and museums, notables include:

- 1741 Gemeinhaus
- 1744/52 Single Sisters' House
- 1758/65 Nain-Schober House
- 1762 Moravian Waterworks

The National Museum of Industrial History, a Smithsonian Affiliate, is dedicated to preserving America's rich industrial heritage. The museum is located in a 100-year-old former Bethlehem Steel facility on the largest private brownfield in America.

The 48-ton Josiah White II canal boat plies the waters of old Section 8 of the Lehigh Canal as crew interpret the story of the anthracite canals and the people who worked and lived on them. Two mules – Hank and George – tow the boat on a 45-minute trip from the National Canal Museum to the Locktender's House and back.
