Destination Weddings

The Dominican Republic is considered as one of the best destinations in the Caribbean to solemnize weddings, for honeymooning, or to spend unforget-table moments with your couple. The Dominican Republic is the perfect setting –because of its varied and spectacular geography– that allows you to plan the wedding of your dreams.

Should you choose for a destination wedding, in the Dominican Republic you will find paradisiac, secluded, lively— a varied of places that will fascinate you—whichever place you have dreamt to voice your "I do", be it a romantic, or an elegant, or an intimate, or an exotic, or a colonial, or a tropical, or simple a fun wedding ... we assure you ... your wedding will be unquestionably an unique

At a wedding, the not miss element is the celebration of the significance of love ... but to celebrate that love, the bride and groom must organize and strategize a series of steps as to ensure that their wedding ceremony is not only unique, but a perfect one. The first steps would be: defining the date, defining the concept, deciding on style and theme of decorations, defining the budget, and agreeing on the amount of guests. With the information provided, the wedding event will be much easier to organize.

Today's trend is to celebrate theme weddings, where the bride and groom personalize the event according to their likes, and one where the "magic", or "fun", or "surprise" touch is a not miss! Fashion is to be less classic and more creative, without forgetting that this event, in no way, can lose the solemnity that characterizes this event.

Romantic-sylvan, bohemian, elegant, industrial, rocker, and glimmer styles are the ones that have been setting trends in what respects to décor, which are complemented by the use of gold accent pair to pastel colors. Now-a-days weddings are lighter, less rigorous, reason why bride's dresses are less elaborate, groom's suits are simpler, have lost the sobriety that once characterized them; brides' hair-styles are more natural; wedding cakes are less structured and more original; bunches are made with different types and color of flowers... and the more wild flowers are use, the better!

Trends

If you'll be celebrating your wedding this year, you'll love to know what are the hot new trends in order to prepare the most beautiful and original wedding of all.

Decorative styles: for wedding decoration, no matter if ceremony is at the open or at closed doors, there is only one word for it: elegance. The four most popular styles are: romantic & nature wild, bohemian & elegant, the industrial, and the rock & roll and sparkly. Also, sceneries of ocean-front, mountain-view, colonial buildings (includes palaces, monuments, temples, churches, chapels and breathtaking terraces) will rule as stages for any celebration. Never forget the following venues and elements when time for decorating comes: the altar, the aisles, chairs (the simpler the better), and tables (tablecloth, table runners, with a center piece that matches decorative theme).

Love-Romantic: the concept of the wedding is marked by the bride and groom love story, by the collection of memorabilia of their life as a couple, all of this inserted within a casual and non-structured atmosphere. Also, should the bride and the groom have a good financial position, they may be able to recreate special ambience to impress their guests.

Wedding Dress: for this year, styles and models of wedding dresses vary considerably: from those sewed with lace, chiffon and tulle, leaving the shoulders on the air and low-rise sleeves that reminisce the Victorian era; to dresses with bare back and adorned with laces and even the use of a tailored dresses in lieu of a traditional wedding dress. For the 'petite' brides, they should wear simpler and more iconic, such as cocktail dresses, or light and loose clothing with lace instead of traditional ones.

Groom attire: although there is no significant difference to previous years, when it comes to the grooms' attire the most important accessory is: the tie; with a wide variety of models and colors, but it will come down to the concept of the wedding. The reigning color will be the blue, no matter the color shades, where prints are "a la mode" in a mix of fabrics: satin, plain embroidered with small specks, polka dots, freckles, geometric patterns, or nature-inspired brocades. Also, some traditional colors used are gray and black, and other not so classic, like green and garnet red.

Braided Hair: the perfect hairstyles and best ally of brides - for any style of wedding - braids, will be the main protagonist, be it wrapped, loose, or in disarray.

Make-up: less is more! This year, the trend for makeup is the use of completely natural, with bold lips highlighting the bride's sensuality.

Bride's Bouquet: the creative bouquets are winning over the traditional ones, leaving the classic behind. The trend now is the use of wildflowers with a good colorful combination, including uneven leaves and stems, or long-stem twigs, such as olive, eucalyptus and ferns; so, the asymmetrical bouquet is made up of different flowers cluttered together, in a somewhat disorderly way, and tightly secured by a satin ribbon. Others are the cascade bouquet in a vertically flowing arrangement and, also, the classic round bouquet (or bunch) prepared with the same type and color flowers. The ideal flowers for the classic round bunch are: roses, carnations and peonies.

Invitations: in terms of wedding stationery, the trend for this year, will remains with the watercolors somewhat elaborated, as well as the classic invitations and botanic illustrations, whether tropical or the same tropical with a bohemian flair for the more daring couples. The minimalist, clean and simple designs are also trending, but the most important detail will be the type of letter-font and the way bride & groom will deliver their wedding invitations.

Wedding Cake: one key element for any wedding is the cake. The whites, offwhites and ivory still remain as favorites, but nothing presumptuous and not too many details to decorate, just the colors selected by the couple according to the wedding theme trends. Due to the many different designs, shapes and flavors, all wedding cakes are considered a real task of ingenuity.

Current trends are:

- Naked Cakes: decorated with beautiful wildflowers and delicious seasonal fruits, like strawberries. They are recommended for morning, outdoor and countryside weddings.
- Semi-nude Cakes: the cake adorned with a thin layer of butter and confectionery sugar mixture (butter cream) and the top must be similar to the bridal's bouquet well be the hot trend for this year. These cakes are ungraceful, but glamorous and perfectly geometrical. The texture makes of it the perfect wedding cake for any type of ceremony, be it intimate or in a big family wedding.
- Vertical: they are elegant and minimalist, but totally luxurious when - simply elegant and luxurious, this cake is to be the centerpiece of dessert table, and details may be added, such as: flowers, colors laminated in gold or silver.

- Hand-Painted: elegant and sophisticated, this cake is inspired by the bride's dress and by the layers of tulle.
 This trend in cakes is recommended for artists and architects and for couples that stand out as originals and creative.
- Chalkboard: as crazy as it may seem, decoration trend in variations of grays is more fashionable than ever. These wedding cakes are unique and totally personalized, where the bride and groom are able to write their love story.

"My wife and I had our wedding at the Majestic Colonial. We recommend this hotel for a destination wedding. The planning team, together with the wedding coordinator, the photographer, and the videographer were all great. they took into account and respected all our ideas, as well as each one of the hotel's staff. Our wedding was performed in the beautiful colonial chapel, and the wedding reception at the Wet Bar - an outdoor space surrounded by coconut palm trees, with a spectacular view of the swimming pool. We are more than happy, we are completely pleased with the wedding and that we had chosen the Majestic Colonial and the Dominican Republic for our destination wedding".

RIU PALACE BÁVARO

Shedeka Marriot & Kashwayne Williams, August 2016

"I want to say thank you for helping to make our special day so memorable. We appreciate your efforts in preparing our wedding on August 4th. It was a very beautiful and sensual moment for us. I am very happy that you helped us to celebrate such a incredible journey in our lives. I cried because I was so happy and overwhelmed, everything was perfect. The bouquet was absolutely beautiful!!!

I was very pleased with the way that you did exactly what I had hopes for.

The cake was very delicious as well. We enjoyed it!

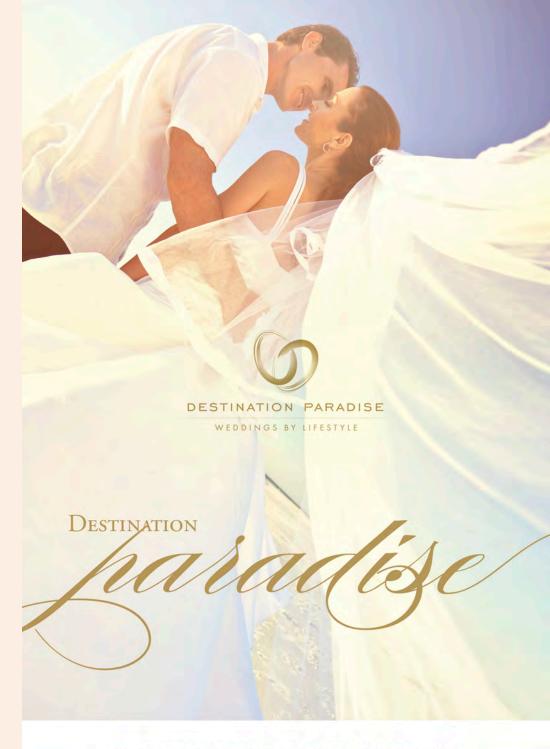

We will return soon to enjoy more of that cake and your beautiful country".

MELIA CARIBE TROPICAL Jennifer Gray, January 2016

"Due to our budget and geographically wide spread family, my husband and I wanted to do a destination wedding where we could share more than just a few hours with our group of 12 members, between relatives and friends.

All of our guests were pleased with the Meliá Caribe Tropical in Punta Cana, and especially with the food. However, I think the best food we had was during our wedding banquet and our romantic dinner on the beach the night after – although I may be a little biased; plus, the resort's beach and pool were astonishing, clean, and well maintained, and there were plenty of activities for everyone".
