“For each petal on the shamrock this brings a wish your way. Good health, good luck, and happiness for today and every day.”

– Irish Proverb

Congratulations on your engagement! Now it's time to begin planning your perfect day. Beautiful venues, affordable prices, and a little bit o' luck of the Irish is what you will discover when holding your wedding in Dublin. This guide is meant to make the wedding planning process as seamless as possible. From rehearsal dinner options to hotels that can accommodate your out of town guests, you will find lots of options and recommendations right here.

When planning an event in Dublin, you will also have access to the free planning services at the Dublin Convention & Visitors Bureau. These services include:

Recommendations: Trust recommendations from City experts. Our job is to know the best places to stay, play, eat and sleep while in Dublin. We can recommend fun offsite activities for guests, great restaurants to hold the brunch the morning after the big day and answer any other questions you may have about the area.

Accommodations: The Dublin CVB is a nonprofit organization that represents all 14 local hotels as well as area businesses and attractions. Booking your hotel rooms is a breeze when working with the CVB. We contact the hotels for you and can even schedule and take you on tours of our hotels and facilities!

Guides: We can provide free Visitor and Event Planning Guides, discount coupons to local businesses and attractions and an Irish Wedding Toast for your guest welcome bags. The best part? It's all FREE!

Contact: Dublin CVB for planning assistance at 614/792-7666 or info@IrishisanAttitude.com. Happy Wedding Planning!

Irish Weddings

Named after Dublin, Ireland, Dublin, Ohio still embraces Irish culture today. With one of the largest Irish Festivals in the world, high school mascots like the Irish, Celtics and Shamrocks, Irish import stores and quaint Irish pubs, Dublin is the perfect location to hold an Irish themed wedding.

Ha'penny Bridge Imports in Dublin offers Kilt rentals for the groom and groomsmen as well as Claddagh rings representing love, loyalty, and friendship. Arrange for Irish Dancers from Richens Timm Academy of Irish Dance to perform at the reception or greet guests at the ceremony. Several Dublin restaurants offer Irish Fare including Sunny Street Café (Perimeter Loop location) and Whole Foods Dublin. Sunny Street Café offers traditional Irish dishes like Craggaunowen Chicken or corned beef and cabbage, Irish soda bread and apple cake. Order Irish fare from Whole Foods such as Guinness Irish Beef Stew, potato cabbage bundles, Irish cheeses and more. Hold your rehearsal dinner or reception at an authentic Irish Pub, Brazenhead in Historic Dublin. Inspired by the oldest pub in Ireland, Brazenhead in Dublin resembles its namesake.

Tip* Keep Irish tradition by adding some good luck to your wedding day with a horseshoe. Keep the horseshoe upright, resembling a "U" — otherwise, legend says the luck will run out! Get creative, incorporate a horseshoe in your bouquet, wear a horseshoe necklace, or sew a small porcelain version inside your gown.
