BRIDLINGTON ICE TRAIL

From 11am to 5.30pm on
Saturday 15 November and
11am to 3.30pm on Sunday
16 November 2025

Free event

LIVE ICE CARVINGS

If you've ever wondered how ice sculptures are made, be sure to come along to our live ice carving where you can watch the team from Glacial Art in action.

The live ice carving will begin around 11am on Saturday and Sunday outside HSBC on Manor Street, taking around 3 hours to complete.

INTERACTIVE ICE CARVING WALL

If you're feeling inspired and fancy trying your hand at some ice carving, head to our huge carving wall on Garrison Square where the team from Glacial Art will be on hand to help.

The ice carving wall will be open from 11.30am on Saturday and Sunday.

FIRE AND ICE SHOWS

Prepare for a weekend of fire and ice! Each day there will be two 15-minute performances which will feature ice sculpting using chainsaws and power tools, synchronised with a choreographed pyrotechnic display set to music.

Fire and ice shows will take place at 1pm and 4pm on the Saturday and 1pm and 3.30pm on the Sunday at Regent Gardens.

OTHER ENTERTAINMENT

Saturday 15th November

Makara Morris Dancers at 11am and 12pm on Prince Street.
The Mood Swings Duo at 2pm and 3pm on Prince Street.
Santa's Sleigh arrival at 5.30pm on Manor Street.

Sunday 16th November

All for One Choir at 12pm on Regent Gardens

A WHOLE WEEKEND OF CHRISTMAS FUN IN BRIDLINGTON

Alongside the spectacular Bridlington Ice Trail, there will be lots more Christmas activities to enjoy. Bridlington's Christmas Food Festival will be taking place all weekend too on King Street, providing the perfect opportunity to enjoy some festive feasting and do some Christmas shopping.

Did you enjoy the trail?

To be in with the chance of winning a family ticket to Dick Whittington Panto at Brid Spa and a £50 Amazon gift voucher then please follow the QR code to a quick and easy survey. Let us know your thoughts and feedback and don't forget to guess how many parcels are inside the post box!
