

Accessible & Inclusive Tourism Award

Recognises tourism businesses that excel in providing an inclusive customer experience, particularly for those with accessibility requirements.

This sample application form is for information only and all applications must be made via the online application system.

Useful information before you start your application

Before you start your application:

1. Read and accept the Applicant Terms and Conditions when prompted.
2. Make sure that you are eligible for the category you are considering applying for. Read the eligibility criteria carefully, if you are deemed ineligible you may be moved to another category where you would be eligible, or your application may be discounted altogether. If you are not sure whether you are eligible, check with the competition organiser before completing your application.
3. To avoid duplication in your responses, read all the questions before you start. For most categories each question covers a different aspect of your business, e.g.
 - a. Question 1 – Top Qualities
e.g. unique selling points, strengths and the essence of the business
 - b. Question 2 – Recent Improvements
e.g. business developments and improvements over the last two years
 - c. Question 3 – Results
e.g. recent successes from across the business – providing figures where relevant
 - d. Question 4 – Future Plans
e.g. plans to develop and promote the business over the next year
4. Read the guidance information starting ‘judges will be looking for . . .’ for suggestions on what to include in your answers.
5. By setting up an account you can save your work and come back to it later – you don’t have to start and submit your application in one sitting.
6. Take your time but be mindful of the closing date for applications.
7. Be aware of the word limits, they are exact.
8. Proof your entry before submitting.

Good luck!

Eligibility criteria

- Directly involved in tourism, making a contribution to the visitor economy with a significant proportion of business generated by people visiting from outside the local area.

Meets the following criteria:

- Only tourism businesses who directly serve the end-users (i.e. the tourist/ visitor/ guest) and who control the visitor experience are eligible.
- Applicants that operate multiple sites (e.g. chains, self catering agencies) are invited to submit applications that relate to only one site (up to a maximum of 3 separate applications per category).

(Any award must then be associated with this one property or location, and not the agency/ chain as whole).

This includes a number of different types of business:

- Accommodation e.g. hotels, bed & breakfasts, guest houses, self-catering/serviced apartments, hostels, holiday boats, camping, caravanning, glamping, lodges, shepherds huts, chalets
- Hospitality i.e. a single food and beverage service business e.g. pub, restaurant, café, tea room, coffee shop, bistros, food and drink markets, kiosks & street food (in a regular location). [For these purposes the definition of a food and drink market is a collection of independent food and drink establishments with ancillary services (e.g. parking area, toilets, security, visitor information) and maintained by a management firm as an entity.]
- Transport services e.g. rail, road, water, airports and rental
- Guided tours
- Cultural services, e.g. theatres, musical entertainment venues, sporting venues
- Business events venues
- Sporting, adventure and recreational activities
- Retail i.e. a single retail outlet or shopping centre that attracts a significant number of people visiting from outside the local area [For these purposes the definition of a shopping centre is a collection of independent retail stores with ancillary services (e.g. parking area, toilets, security, visitor information) and maintained by a management firm as an entity.]
- Businesses providing supporting services to visitors in-person within the destination e.g. visitor information providers, left luggage services
- Visitor attractions that meet the visitor attraction definition: a permanently established excursion destination, a primary purpose of which is to allow access for entertainment, interest or education and can include places of worship; rather than being primarily a retail outlet or a venue for sporting, theatrical or film performances. It must be open to the public, with or without prior booking, for published periods each year, and should be capable of attracting day visitors or tourists as well as local residents.
- Businesses that serve food must have a minimum food hygiene rating of three out of five. The competition organisers reserve the right to refuse an application if this minimum requirement is not met at any point prior to the awards ceremony. An exception is made for new businesses who have not yet been graded.

- Events and festivals, if they fulfil the following criteria:
 - An application can relate to an event/ festival that was held in 2024 or 2025. If it was held in 2024, it must take place again at least once between 01 January 2025 and 31 March 2026
 - The event/ festival must have the intention to be re-occurring (taking place at least once every two years), and by the time of national judging (March/April 2026) must have a date already confirmed and published for an event/festival to be held after 31 March 2026
- For event companies that run several events/ festivals, the application must relate specifically to one named event/ festival
- Businesses of all sizes can apply as this category is judged within the context and style of the business.
- Businesses that have been trading for at least three months and up to two years when applications open, are strongly recommended to apply to the New Tourism Business of the Year category before considering applying to any other categories
 - For the purpose of eligibility for this competition, 'trading' means serving customers. If the business has not been trading this long, then they will need to wait to apply to the competition in 2026/27
- Applications from a chain or group operator must relate to a single site and not multiple sites.

Regenerative Tourism champions that tourism should leave a place better than it was before. The main goal is for visitors to have a positive impact in the destination or place they visit. Through this we wish to champion actions of suppliers, staff and local stakeholders in supporting the entrant on their delivery to the visitor.

We are looking for actions that support some or all of the below to a standard that could inspire visitors, suppliers and staff in positive actions:

- Climate – actions to decarbonise energy/mobility towards Net Zero
- Circular Economy – clear examples of management of suppliers, waste, recycling, sustainable products and efficient use of resources
- Biodiversity – actions to protect and restore nature
- Place based – respect for local area/communities, use of local suppliers, tourism that does no harm
