LET'S GO

Etown

OUTSIDE

Elizabethtown Nature Park

The Elizabethtown Nature Park is full of gorgeous trails and monuments honoring those who have served in the military. Extend your hike and use the underpass that connects the Elizabethtown Nature Park to the north end of Freeman Lake! Be sure to visit the Vietnam Veteran Memorial Wall.

Fishing

You're guaranteed to make some memories fishing at Freeman Lake! You can fish from around the lake shore, or get out on the water and rent a boat from the park office. With so many fishing spots, you're sure to reel in a good catch!

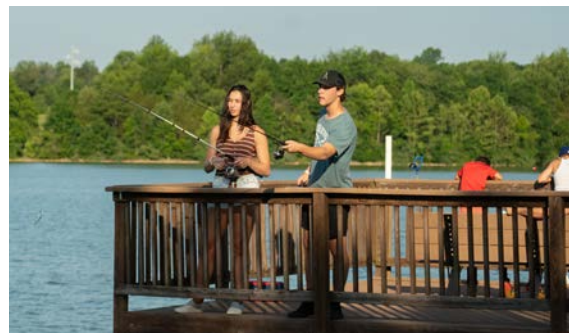

Kayaking

Explore the most beautiful parts of Freeman Lake by kayak! Bring your own kayak or rent one at Freeman Lake's Park office.

Find your next great outdoor adventure in Elizabethtown, Kentucky! There is much to explore in Elizabethtown, from walking scenic trails to kayaking in Freeman Lake. We have a little bit of everything for everyone!

Freeman Lake Park

The possibilities to have fun at Freeman Lake Park are endless! History buffs will love the historical sites of the Lincoln Heritage House, Sarah Bush Johnston Lincoln Memorial Cabin, and One-Room School-house.
