WHO WE ARE

> Organization Structure

The Elkhart County, Indiana, Convention & Visitors Bureau (ECCVB) is a private, nonprofit corporation. It serves as the official tourism advertising/marketing and public/community relations organization for the Elkhart County hospitality industry.

The ECCVB represents the interests and needs of potential and actual visitors to Elkhart County and provides its visitor services free of charge. Funding for the ECCVB comes from a lodging tax collected from visitors at the local level by way of Elkhart County lodging facilities with more than 30 rooms.

As the champions for place-making initiatives and tourism promotion, the ECCVB takes an active role representing sustainable quality-of-place development through affiliations with government, economic development organizations, developers, tourism-related businesses and other organizations that align with its mission.

The ECCVB develops diverse strategic partnerships to maximize the effectiveness of its research-based marketing programs and development initiatives in Elkhart County.

- A seven-member Innkeepers Tax Commission, appointed by the Elkhart County government executives under the direction of Indiana Law IC 6-9-19, has oversight responsibility for the appropriation of the lodging tax fund.
- A seven-member Board of Directors provides fiscal and policy stewardship for the Elkhart County Convention & Visitors Bureau Corporation.
- The ECCVB employs a 10-person staff which manages its various programs and operations and provides support to the area's hospitality industry.
- The ECCVB's governance and management is aligned in vision, purpose, values, strategic partnerships and program implementation and assigns the needed resources to accomplish successful outcomes.

The ECCVB is a member of the Northern Indiana Tourism Development Commission, an alliance of seven CVBs in northern Indiana. With an agreed-upon destination brand positioning and strategy, NITDC members:

- Collaborate on issues of mutual importance;
- Participate in cooperative marketing programming;
- Conduct credible research-based activities;
- Contribute to an integrated regional website that draws information from member websites and databases

> Accountability

Accountability is an integral part of the corporate culture. The ECCVB must show how it effectively uses its resources to generate the greatest return on investment for the destination. It monitors and analyzes many sources of data on the industry-wide impact of tourism in the Elkhart County area, and reports how it contributes positively to the hospitality industry.

The Innkeepers Tax Commission and Board of Directors meet bi-monthly. At these meetings, the two bodies receive reports on performance metrics and discuss and act on policy initiatives and priorities.

> Values and Guiding Principles

The ECCVB is guided in its daily activities by a foundation built on strong values and guiding principles that are:

- Ethical

MISSION AND KEY STRATEGIES

The ECCVB is Elkhart County's champion for place-making initiatives through its affiliations with government, economic development organizations, developers, and tourism-related businesses and organizations. The ECCVB forms strategic partnerships to maximize the effectiveness of its research-based branded marketing programs and development activities that highlight Elkhart County as an outstanding place to live, work and play.

It advocates for all Elkhart County communities by connecting visitors' needs and interests with the amenities, products and services provided by community partners and by leveraging relationships and staff expertise to enhance the quality of place of downtowns, neighborhoods and rural spaces. The ECCVB develops, executes and manages a broad range of programs that connect visitors with its hospitality partners while adhering to an overall vision of continuous development throughout Elkhart County.

To achieve its annual strategic goals, the ECCVB targets particular programs for emphasis through sponsorship and marketing activities, collaboration with partners and community organizations, and development and planning initiatives.

Quality of place is the organizing theme for the ECCVB's efforts focusing on the attractions, aesthetics and culture of the community that help residents and visitors alike build emotional bonds with our destination.

For 2018, the organizing themes are summarized in four key pillars that form the ECCVB's strategy:

Visitors & Tourism (page 7): From the Heritage Trail and Quilt Gardens to Amish Country and outdoor experiences, Elkhart County offers a wide diversity of activities for all ages.

Development (page 8): New attractions and amenities are a constant work in progress involving partnerships with tourism and hospitality partners as well as local government agencies.

Communications (page 9): Smart tactical choices and well thought-out long-term strategies will maintain effective messaging for visitors and residents.

Research (page 9): Data-based decision-making is a critical way to deliver value for our organization and stakeholders.

KEY INITIATIVES

> Visitors & Tourism

Heritage Trail

One of the ECCVB's most successful brands will be celebrating its 25th year with a refresh as the Heritage Trail audio tour undergoes a revision. The tour will continue its leading role in connecting each of Elkhart County's communities and reinforcing those downtowns and neighborhoods as excellent places to visit, live and play. The Heritage Trail celebrates the diversity and variety of urban, rural, family-friendly and authentic experiences.

Quilt Gardens

This singular event offers a distinctive experience every year, attracting visitors with disparate interests such as gardening, quilting and history.

Coming off a strong 2017, the Quilt Gardens will continue to be a cornerstone attraction for visitors and residents in 2018. It has firmly established itself as a role model for the growing interest in public art throughout Elkhart County.

Via its sponsorship program, the ECCVB supports non-profit organizations which conduct events and festivals that build stronger community relationships, encourage visits from around the region and reinforce the area's position as attractive communities.

The ECCVB is committing $100,000 to sponsoring events and programs in 2018.

Group Experiences

Tour groups have long gravitated to Amish Country and Quilt Gardens attractions, but the affection and trust they have in Elkhart County's charms are extending now to downtowns and other activities in the region.

As a recreational vehicle manufacturing hub, Elkhart County is a significant draw for organized rallies as well as RV consumers who are shopping or seeking services.

Similarly, 2018 will be important in the development of sports venues and programming, with the ECCVB partnering to promote existing facilities as well as a new world-class natatorium and burgeoning opportunities for bicycling, water sports and ice skating.

> Development

Downtowns

Through multiple initiatives, including the Live. Work. Play. capacity grants, development and promotional activities have strengthened the downtowns of Elkhart, Goshen, Nappanee and Middlebury with exciting new businesses, inviting programs and events, and a thriving arts culture.

Trail Networks

Elkhart County enjoys a healthy and growing trail network that have encouraged bicycling, jogging and walking enthusiasts to take advantage. Continued development will expand the trails, lay the foundation for future development and increase awareness to residents and visitors of the multiple stops on the Heritage Trail such as the Pumpkinvine Nature Trail and multiple spurs which connect Elkhart and other areas of Goshen.

Amish Country

Thousands of visitors come to Elkhart County annually to experience the tranquility and comfort of Amish Country. The Heritage Trail enhances the visitor experience with planning tools and connects visitors to each of Elkhart County's vibrant communities.

The strength of the Amish Country brand enables it to be an entry point for the diversity of experiences in our destination.

> Communications

Vibrant Communities

The Vibrant Communities initiative enters its third year as a key part of the strategy to build a supportive environment for quality-of-place developments, leading to higher levels of community pride and a competitive position for local communities' talent attraction and retention efforts.

Northern Indiana Partners

As partners with the Northern Indiana Tourism Development Commission, the ECCVB will continue to support NITDC's efforts to deliver tourism and hospitality messages to the roughly 65 million travelers annually on the toll road. The Exit 92 advertising campaign will also draw an increasing share of those travelers to utilize lodging, dining and other facilities in Elkhart, while the ECCVB will play a key role in supporting the new Indiana's Cool North campaign.

Events and Programs

Organized activities bring communities together and expose residents and visitors to assets and experiences they might not otherwise have sought.

By supporting events such as the Pumpkinvine Bike Ride, Bike Elkhart Quilt Gardens Ride and programs that boost parks, the ECCVB activates outdoor spaces and nurtures connections.

Development of guided walking tours in Elkhart and Middlebury will build awareness of each community's unique qualities.

> Research

North Pointe

Ongoing study and strategies will be enacted as the ECCVB partners with the city of Elkhart and local stakeholders on the redevelopment of North Pointe Plaza, which may include new buildings or tenants as well as possible green space that would spur further development. The plaza is a central pillar to the continuing strategy of creating the premier stop on the Indiana Toll Road at Elkhart's Exit 92.

Place Identity

Continued work will be put into the strategic re-positioning of the ECCVB's efforts and Elkhart County's identity as a whole. As partners with the key stakeholders, the ECCVB views a coordinated and coherent communications strategy that highlights the distinctive traits and personality of Elkhart County as vital for the future of the region.

This situation will be evaluated to determine an appropriate upgrade path. Recommendations may include additional memory, a larger hard disk drive or storage unit, a newer workstation computer, network equipment or server system.
