

Amish Experience

IN NORTHERN INDIANA

Elkhart Goshen Middlebury Nappanee Bristol Wakarusa & Shipshewana

Take a journey to the past that's loaded with plenty of modern-day fun. Get a true look at the Amish lifestyle and learn about their history. Tour country roads more traveled by buggies than cars. Stop at shops filled with goods your grandma probably used. Savor hearty Amish style fare. Meet Amish business owners who make the products and craft the wares for their culture. Delight in scenic backroads, peaceful people and local products that make Amish Country so memorable. Laugh, sing and be entertained in local theatres on family friendly entertainment and Broadway musicals.

You'll be busy all the time and loving every minute!

 NORTHERN INDIANA

THE AMISH EXPERIENCE 5 DAY / 4 NIGHT SAMPLE ITINERARY

DAY ONE

Arrival in Amish Country of Northern Indiana, Shipshewana

2:00 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. Shopping at the Shipshewana Flea Market & Auction and in downtown Shipshewana [no admission fee]

The Shipshewana Flea Market is a do-not-miss Hoosier tradition with nearly 900 booths in an open-air market covering 100 acres. The vendors are open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. every Tuesday and Wednesday, May through September. Also open Memorial Day, 4th of July & Labor Day! Vendors offer a variety of products and truly have something for everyone - quirky novelties, fresh seasonal produce, crafts, home decor, dollar items, clothes, garden supplies, cleaning supplies, beauty essentials, paper goods, jewelry, snacks, accessories, games, books, toys, furniture, baked goods, signs, silk flowers, t-shirts, pet supplies and everything in between. Open rain or shine. There are food courts, a sit-down restaurant and rest areas throughout the market. The antique auction barn, open Wednesdays year-round, has up to 10 rings simultaneously auctioning antiques and collectibles. The livestock barn features cattle auctions open to the public on Wednesday's and horse auctions open to the public on Friday's. Guests can also stroll the short couple of blocks into downtown Shipshewana to browse over 90+ retail stores for additional shopping.

Optional Activities

Asking Amish [$100 per group PLUS meal cost which varies by menu and ranges from $15-$17 pp incl]

Did you ever wonder why the Amish dress as they do? Why do younger Amish girls wear brightly colored dresses while older women wear darker colors? Or how do the Amish live without electricity? Linda Miller and her Old Order Amish family invite you to their family farmstead where you'll get a chance to ask Linda all those questions and more in person. First, sit down for a delicious homecooked meal served in their banquet hall, Hoosier Banquets. Delight in a variety of menu options all served on floral dishes with fancy tablecloths. Afterward, you'll engage in lively conversation with Linda who is open to answering all your questions.

Paint an Amish Buggy Piece [$15 pp incl]

Sit down with local artist, Linda Pieri and be shown painting secrets developed throughout the ages. Linda has taught over 400 people in the art of acrylic painting encouraging them to "not just look at what you are drawing or painting, but to see what is really there." This is not a paint by number situation. Linda helps each person discover the creative artist inside of each of them. Everything is provided and everyone leaves with a finished painting.

Personalize Your Own Birdhouse [$16 pp incl]

Visit B&L Woodcraft Amish furniture shop and customize your own souvenir birdhouse. Each member of the group gets a box with their name on it and proceeds through lines to select colors, decorations and make customized sayings. The host Amish family assembles each birdhouse and places it back in the box, ready to load onto the coach. After selecting their birdhouses, groups have time to explore the wide selection of furniture, home accents, gift items and antiques on the farm.

Amish rug weaving demo & Cookie break [$3 pp incl]

Leo & Lorene Miller welcome you to their Old Order Amish home where Leo has been handweaving rag rugs for years. Taught by his family, Leo will demonstrate how he weaves and creates his beautiful and functional rugs. Meanwhile Lorene, his wife, will serve you her fresh from the oven cookies and cold lemonade as both the Miller's welcome your group and answer questions about their personal Amish lifestyle.

2 p.m.

Depart for home
