Did You Know ...

Elkhart County is home to the world's largest concentration of RV-related manufacturers and service providers in the country. In fact, more than 80 percent of the nation's recreational vehicles are made right here.

The "RV Capital" is right in the center of Northern Indiana's Amish Country, one of the Midwest's most popular cultural attractions. Our scenic rural landscapes are nationally recognized, and our centralized location is within a day's drive of half of the nation's population.

Combined, these unique features make Elkhart County an ideal site for your next RV rally, and the Elkhart County, IN Convention and Visitors Bureau (ECCVB) provides all the tools to help you plan it.

The ECCVB's custom rally and travel services include assistance with:

- Opening and/or closing ceremony planning
- Site selection visits
- Organized tours and activities
- Travel and destination consultation
- RV manufacturers tours
- Discounted admission to the RV/MH Heritage Museum, the largest of its kind in the world

Bring small dogs to your rally site for potential adoption or to just play. An application and background check is required of those who wish to adopt but this process is fairly quick and efficient. Small dogs make perfect pets for on the road traveling in RV's. SCSDR is a non-profit organization dedicated to the rescue, rehabilitation, and placement of small dogs in suitable homes. Run solely by volunteers who take in strays, retired breeders, owner surrenders, other rescues, and any other small dog in need. The dogs are placed in foster homes where the emphasis is on getting them medically up-to-date, spayed or neutered, socialized, housebroken and obedience-trained if needed.

Demonstrations & Classes

A creative way to connect! Add value and variety to your rally itinerary with locally-themed classes and demonstrations.

Acrylic Painting Make-Take by Linda Pieri (Fee)

Contact: Linda Pieri

p: 574.304.3246 | LindaPieriStudio.com

Program occurs in a building at your campground or a facility of choice. Groups will sit down with local artist, Linda Pieri and be shown painting secrets developed throughout the ages. Linda has taught over 1000 people in the art of acrylic painting encouraging them to “not just look at what you are drawing or painting, but to see what is really there.” In this one-hour session, you will be able to observe a demonstration and follow step-by-step instructions that will help you create your own masterpiece. This is not a paint by number situation. Linda helps each person discover the creative artist inside of each of them. Everything is provided including: easel, canvas, acrylic paints, brushes, brush basins, palettes, and paint clothes. Acrylic paintings are on 5”x7” canvas board postcards. Everyone leaves with a finished painting that they will be proud of. One subject per class – to be chosen by group leader prior to class. (Available subject matters will be given to group at time of booking).

Tasty Delights

with Cathy's Countryside Tours

Explore the essence of Amish cooking in this farm-to-table experience. This tour gives you the opportunity to engage with farmers growing the food, millers grinding the wheat and families preparing the meal.

The Quilt Gardens ... along the Heritage Trail

The first and only one of its kind in the country! Elkhart County's annual Quilt Gardens along the Heritage Trail features a glorious rainbow of 1,000,000+ blooms planted in artfully precise combinations to form a colorful patchwork. Vibrant gardens averaging 20-feet-by-40-feet in size and hand-painted, super-sized murals are placed throughout the destination in celebration of the heritage of those who call Elkhart County and Amish Country home. Most are based on the patterns of traditional Amish quilts, considered to be among the most exquisitely crafted in the world. Just for Groups ... add special gardening and quilting programs, get a Master Gardener Step-On Guide and schedule hands-on activities.
