Outdoor Adventures ... along the Heritage Trail

See a whole new side of Elkhart County from a kayak or canoe. Locals love to paddle the stretch of the Elkhart River from Elkhart to Goshen, where the waterway alternates between rural tranquility and the excitement of friendly hellos from the riverbank. The St. Joe River in Elkhart and Bristol and the Little Elkhart River in Bristol and Middlebury also offer excellent adventures. You can bring your own kayak or canoe or rent one.

The best way to truly commune with Mother Nature is to walk a trail or ride a bike through the paths. The Pumpkinvine Nature Trail offers three stunning trails that connect Elkhart, Goshen, Middlebury and Shipshewana.

Don't forget your clubs so you can hit the links at one of the beautifully manicured public golf courses. You will run out of time before you run out of outdoor options across Elkhart County. But that's okay! We'll be here waiting for you to return for your next adventure.

Shop 'til you drop

Whether you're buying a gift or treating yourself, shopping along the Heritage Trail is an experience like none other. Discover unique handcrafted finds at artisans' shops and browse small-town stores with merchandise you won't find anywhere else. You won't be able to resist the cinnamon rolls dripping with icing or the smell of fresh baked bread at the Amish bakeries. You may just uncover a few surprises as your driving and stumble upon the Amish home businesses that dot the countryside. And if you love a bargain, be sure to check out the lively auctions, flea markets and huge indoor marketplaces.
