
A Honey of a Place

Bee Hive Bed & Breakfast

Herb and Treva Swarm have combined their love for hosting guests with their love of Northern Indiana heritage. And that keeps the Bee Hive buzzing. Built near Middlebury with hand-sawed, rough timber, the Bee Hive provides a warm, cozy, family atmosphere. Chat with Herb and he'll tell you about the Amish community, museums, gifts shops and flea markets. Or join an old-fashioned sing along as Herb plays the accordion. Or stroll through the small fruit orchard that's located on their grounds.

Points of Interest:

- Herb and Treva give backroads tours, helping guests uncover the secrets of Amish Country.
 - Old tractors and steam engines can be enjoyed on the property.
 - Herb has been known to make apple butter using one of the steam engines.
-