A school is but a reflection of its students, and each of us at York is a part of the whole picture, each a mirror reflecting the spirit of York.

So, too, is the 1962 Y'S TALES in which we have attempted to record your year at York.

Faces Portray York's Story

Tim Wallace contemplates the mysteries of science.

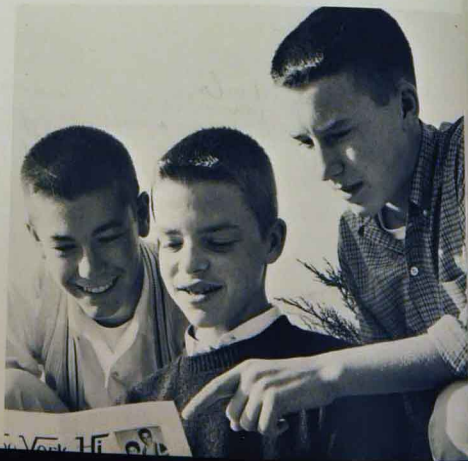

Don Hill and Nancy Skinner reflect the image of youth.

Liz Rogers radiates enthusiasm.

The promise of York's future is in the faces of Jay Hasket, Greg Licht, and Bruce Fredricksen.

Richard Haseman displays a musician's dedication.

Marty Stephenson's expression reflects interest and concern.

Youthful and naïveté is expressed on the face of Freshman Paul Cameron.

Purposeful creativity is mirrored on the face of Terra Hookham.

I keep some portion of my early gleam,
Brokenly bright, like moonbeams on a river.
It lights my life, a far illusive dream,
Moves as I move, and leads me on forever.
— Throwbridge.

Within these walls and along these shaded walks dreams are made and live undimmed. Through these pages may they retain for you this which was yours — the multitude of emotions experienced at varied athletic contests, the frenzied anxiety before curtain, the mad cramming for examinations, the lofty desire for academic excellence, the mixed emotions on the long march Commencement night. This building, a catalyst to learning and experience, has housed our years of indecision and frustration. It will in the future be the only visible landmark of our most pleasant years — and of our dreams.

Dr. Allingham Heads Busy District Office

When at the beginning of the school year the Board of Education had not chosen a superintendent, Dr. Allingham was appointed Acting Superintendent. In this year with the district beset with problems of referenda, austerity budgets, and mounting enrollments, his role was not an easy one. His untiring efforts directed at solving some of these perplexing problems won him respect from faculty and community. The Board of Education in February named Dr. Allingham Superintendent of District 88. He now has the full responsibility of keeping two first class schools in operation in a district in which the problems will continue to grow. We join all those who wish him well and pledge their support in this most important work.

Well known for his interest in high standards in all of York's endeavors, Mr. Michelsen has been largely responsible for maintaining York's leadership in spite of a multitude of obstacles during an extremely difficult year.

The Class of 1962

For these seniors their high school careers are over. Behind them are four years of life at York. It is to be hoped that we have preserved here much that will help to recall for them pleasant thoughts and memories.

National Merit Scholarship Finalists

From more than 550,000 high school students in the United States who took the competitive National Merit Scholarship examinations, ten of York's seniors were named National Merit

Finalists. These ten not only have much to look back upon that is good in their four years at York, but they, indeed, have much to look forward to in the years to come.

James Kirby, who is missing from the picture, finished his high school work in the summer and is now in college.

Thespian Program Slowed by Austerity

With the dramatic bill cut to conform to the austerity program, the Thespian group had a relatively easy year. Instead of the usual five or six major dramatic productions, only two were presented this year. There was work, however, for all when the Stagecraft class periods were dropped. The Thespians took the challenge and became stars not only under the bright lights, but behind the scenes with the paint pots and stage braces as well.

York's Thespian group is affiliated with the National Thespian organization, a high school dramatic society honoring achievement in the dramatic arts. Miss Margo Demetral was the faculty advisor to the group.

Girls in 509 Served to Brighten Bleak Fall

Debby Van Norman, Mary Liz Rutecki and Jeff Brown listen intently to the ratings of politician Roger Wolf in "The Girls in 509."

The full impact of York's year of austerity was felt by the Drama Department. Only two major productions were presented instead of the usual five or six. In the fall The Girls in 509, directed by Miss Margo Demetral, was a bright light of comedy in an otherwise dull part of the year. Too late for pictures in this book came Time Remembered in the spring. On this page are pictures of the fall production and the biennial variety show, "Vaudeville '62."

Homecoming, under the leadership of Bob Huston and his committee chairmen, was a Council project. With the help of the Lettermen, cafeteria supervision came under Council's responsibility. "Vaudeville 1962," one of the few auditorium productions of the year, was sponsored by Council. Mr. R. Warner Brown and Mr. William Zibart were the faculty sponsors.

America Field Service Scores with Yorkites

The American Field Service Committee is a part of the Student Council. An important part of its work is the reviewing and selection of four applicants for appointment by the AFS for a summer abroad. The Student Council helps to finance the program.

The two AFS foreign students sent to York this year were Jutta Schirmacher from Bottrop, West Germany; and Charles Thill from Luxembourg City, Luxembourg. Both have become good Yorkites and have been good ambassadors. Jutta, who wants to pursue a career in journalism, was active on the York-Hi staff. She served on the crew for the fall play and was assistant director for the talent show. Charles plans to go to Paris for his university study of mathematics and hopes to follow a career of research. At York he was active in Student Council work.

Accomplishment and Talent

More of high-stepping, high spirited Marching Band.

York's Concert Band is a proud institution, long recognized in the state and throughout the Midwest as a superior group. The band presents two major concerts during the year in addition to its contribution to the combined Music Department's Christmas program. The colorful and high-spirited Marching Band is a prominent part of all home football games and various other community events. The bands are under the direction of Mr. LaVerne Reimer.

Serious Musicians Make First Rate Orchestra

York's concert orchestra and the various ensemble groups have contributed to York's distinction again this year.

The orchestra played childrens' concerts for two grade schools, and also played at Carl Sandburg High School in Orlin Park.

This year the orchestra presented its annual fall and spring concerts to conclude an active year.

Ensembles Are Active Entertainers

Fall Concert Orchestra Soloists; Left to Right: Charles Tesch, Frederick Hoseman, Judy Larimer, Beth Sinclair, Edward Laut, Frederick Nix.

It may be said that York's orchestra is three groups in one. There is the Concert Orchestra, Dinner Ensemble, which is mainly a service group, and the String Ensemble, often called upon to help in various community affairs.

These groups are under the direction of Mr. Leo Pondelick.

York Is the Sound of Many Voices

Music, music everywhere! Many voices combine to form the various choirs and choruses that make up the Vocal Music Department at York. These are musical organizations in their own right, of course; but it is from these groups that the members of York's major a cappella choir come. ## Debate Squad Studies Problems in Education

The year's topic for debate was "Resolved: The federal government should equalize educational opportunities by means of grants to the states for public elementary and secondary education." Through many sessions of hard work in the library and a number of tournaments during the year, these students have gained much insight into the educational systems of the states and what the Federal government could do to help education in our country.

Cheerleaders are Bright Spot in Austerity Year

This has been the year of austerity as far as activities at York are concerned, but there has been nothing austere in the spirit of the cheerleaders. Sparking each athletic contest throughout the year, these girls have been both a delight and a service to their school!

*Well, Congratulations on your success!
It's been a real nice getting to know you

G.A.A. Teaches After-hours Play

One of the few York activities maintained during our year of austerity, the G.A.A. has provided activities for those girls whose interest in athletics extends beyond their daily physical education classes. The group is affiliated with the statewide organization of G.A.A. and is under the leadership of Miss Simms.

Tough Conference Play

Coach Alex Naidenovich had good reason to be proud of the Dukes this year. The Dukes placed second in the West Suburban Conference, and five of the team's seniors were named to the West Suburban All-Conference team. Of these five, Wayne Strauch received All-Section, All-State, and was elected to All-American honors. Strauch scored sixteen touchdowns to make his total 97 points for the 1961 season. Second high scorer was James Anderson with a total of 36 points to his credit.

The highlight of the season was the night game at Maine, when the Dukes shut out the Devils with a 33-0 victory. The season record for York was six wins and two losses, one of the best showings York has made on the gridiron in many years.

Barons Retain Second Place Standing

Coach Don Layne's powerful Barons proved themselves capable of some good football in this year's tough conference competition. With a respectable four wins and two losses in the final tally, the Barons retained their second place standing in the West Suburban Conference.

A strong offense led by Maurie Kennedy sparked much of the action. Bill Conroy was elected captain and was chosen Most Valuable Player. The Barons should provide a strong backing for next year's Dukes.

Scramble for loose ball.

Another victory being posted.

Along with most of York's clubs and organizations, the Lettermen's Club ceased to function as an extra-curricular group this year. As an active organization, it, too, was a victim of the austerity. The boys, however, have served York in a highly commendable manner during the year. They continued their good services at athletic events, particularly at basketball games, as ushers, general handy-men, and sometimes as bouncers. As part of the Student Council plan to relieve teachers from cafeteria duty and from noon-time hall duty, the Lettermen assumed the responsibility of monitor posts and general cafeteria duty.

Always a proud group, the Lettermen have good reason to look back upon this year's service with pride of having made significant contribution to their school.

Dukes Break into Elite Eight

This is a year that will be remembered as long as there is basketball at York. For the first time in the school's history, the Dukes fought their way into state competition at Champaign.

The Dukes, under the direction of Coach Campbell, used balance as the key to their successful drive to Huff Gymnasium. During the season, York hit a blazing 46.1% from the field while limiting their opponents to a 36% average.

The highlights of the season were the DeKalb tournament championship and the super sectional victory over highly rated Thornton, which sent the Dukes down state as one of the "Elite Eight."

Dukes Place Second in State Competition

The Varsity musclemen, paced by state horizontal bar champion, Jerry Fontana, and state trampoline champion, Ray LaFrancis, tied for second place honors at Willowbrook, with the host school. Jerry also took fourth in all-around competition. Chuck Naus finished sixth on the parallel bars; Ken Kraneman, tenth on side horse; and Ron Cottingham, tenth on the trampoline.

The dual meet season record was eight wins and five losses. Teams who fell to the mighty power of the Dukes were Elgin, Thornton, Hindsdale, Leyden East, Maine East, Maine West, Glenbard West, and Rich.

The Fresh-Soph team finished with an excellent eleven wins and two losses. The only two teams who the Barons lost to were Prospect and Arlington. Mr. Robert Hazlett is the head gymnastics coach. He was assisted by Mr. Wayne Mahood.

Trackmen Make Excellent Showing

The 1961 Track Team became old hands at bringing home the trophy! The York Thinclads won all eleven of the dual meets in which they participated. They carried off top honors from the West Suburban Invitational Meet, the Naperville Relays, the DuPage County Meet, the Palatine Relays, the Rockford Relays, and the Morton District Meet. For the first time in many years the York team scored points in the State Meet.

Outstanding members of the team were Rick Anglickis, Mike Psaltis, Fred Logan, Chuck Durland, Al Hahn, and John Woods. These are but a few, of course; for as Coach Newton said, "With such a splendid showing, this is not work of only a few. This is team work and team spirit."

Coach Newton apparently is not telling funny stories in this rare break in an afternoon's practice.

Dukes Finish 1961 Season In Fifth Place

In a conference season plagued by spring rains, the York Dukes met stiff competition sparked by a spirit of "Get the State Champs!" With a six win and eight loss conference record, the Varsity baseball squad finished fifth in the West Suburban Conference play. In non-conference competition the Dukes won over Willowbrook twice, out scored Fenton once, and fell to a powerful Proviso West team.

The team was led by Al Malecha, who hit .362 and batted in twelve runs. The team elected Malecha and Tom Newell as the most valuable players. All-conference selections were Charles Adams and Wayne Strouch.

Mr. Nelson's 1961 York Varsity Golf Team showed a tremendous improvement over the previous season. After a dismal 1961 record of 1 win 11 losses, the Dukes jumped up to a 1961 count of 9 wins and 6 losses. York finished fifth in the W.S.C.

York's Frosh-Soph Golf Team ended up one match over .500 as they posted a record of 7 wins and 6 losses. Five of the eight numeral winners were freshmen so the Barons could be stronger next season. The high light of the season came in a match against Glenbard West played at the Glen Oak Country Club in Glen Ellyn. Donald Stolper of York fired a golfer's dream, a hole-in-one.

the conference meet, landed the Dukes in fifth place.
