Dedication to Academics as well as enthusiasm for activities reflect the Spirit of York. Tomorrow demands greater educational qualifications acquired through today's spirit of seriousness and desire for success. Through participation in the up-to-date curriculum and guidance by an excellent faculty, students acquire an education that meets modern standards.

Pictured in the following section are the various academic courses offered at York. From the solitude of the Library to the Rules-of-the-Road in Driver Education, students participate in the preparation for Tomorrow.

Social Studies Department put knowledge to work by participating in the Mock Constitutional Convention at Glenbard West. Eleven delegates and eleven alternates representing the department were kept quite busy during the first days of April. Delegates from each school were assigned a position concerning the three topics which were related to the revision of the Illinois Constitution. York's representatives, presenting the urban interests, participated in the adoption of the mock proposals. Mr. Howard Van Norman is Chairman of the Social Studies Department.

German Class Stresses Oral Drill

A new approach, the audio-visual method, is demonstrated in Mrs. Aldona Smulkstys' German 9 pilot class. Charts, illustrations, textbooks containing no words in English, and oral drills are used. Here students are participating in oral testing.

From supplementary materials in Mr. James Berger's French 10 class, John Schaefer chooses a tape; John Soucek and Paulette Blasucci select Je Parle Francais and Toulouse-Lautrec.

Russian 9 will be a new attraction next year in the Foreign Language Department. Four years of French, Spanish, German, and Latin will be offered as usual, headed by Department Chairman Miss Dorothea Petersen.

A language lab, available to all classes, aids in developing understanding and skill. In addition, each language classroom is now equipped with a tape recorder.

Foreign Language enthusiasts participated in language contests throughout the year. A few were the St. Xavier Tournament for Spanish students, the Chicago Area National French Contest, and the Nationwide Latin Exams. Outstanding honors were won by Yorkites in these competitions, and the Steuben award for excellency in German was an added honor for the department.

English Class in Reading Improvement Lab

A special three week unit in Reading Improvement, administered by specialists to all classes in English 9 and 11, is one of the many features of the English Department. Speech, Drama, Journalism, Business English, English Literature, Modern World Literature, and Contemporary Problems and Unified Studies are offered as well as regular courses English 9,10,11. Opportunities for improvement in the efficiency of five-way communication—speaking, writing, reading, listening, and thinking—are provided in this field through a variety of experiences. Mr. Robert M. Leader heads the English Department.

Mrs. Nancy Stevens and Mrs. Ruth Ganchiff, Supplementary Book Room assistants, prepare to deliver sets of The Merchant of Venice and Canterbury Tales for use in English classes. Over 112 sets, totaling 6,200 books, are available for use in the English classes.

New Physical Science Labs are an added feature of the Science Department this year. Along with the Biology, Chemistry, and Physics Labs, the new addition offers the students an opportunity to perform important experiments not used before. This gives them a greater capability in understanding various scientific phenomena.

The Science Department is well equipped and complete. This allows the students to delve into many areas otherwise impossible to study for the lack of facilities. Mr. Elmer Kunze heads this department.

Biology students Richard Bobus, John Sampson, Farida Kasab, Richard Cline, and Tom Wilkerson study the morphology of plants with the aid of microscopes.

Fred Gloff and Steve Bemis demonstrate transparencies, which they produced, on the overhead projector used in Math 12. They have also drawn graphs, formulas, review sheets, and a workable slide rule which were used at the Illinois Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

Senior Boys Create Math 12 Course Aid

An experiment is being tried in the Mathematics Department in which three freshman classes, which had studied Algebra 9 MSG in junior high school are studying advanced math, Geometry 10 UICSM. A special course will be offered students of these classes in their senior year.

Annually this department participates in the contest sponsored in Illinois by the Mathematical Association of America and the Chicago Actuarial Club. The students competing are selected on the basis of their ability and achievements. Department chairman is Miss Ida Lane Settle.

With the help of Miss Marian Johnson, Department Chairman, clubs and organizations may obtain posters and other art works to carry out their special projects. This, along with regular class participation, provides an opportunity for students of sketching, ceramics, painting, and print making to expand their knowledge in this creative field.

Counseling with individual students is the heart of the guidance program at York. Mr. Raymond A. Hylander, Director of the Guidance Department, begins an interview.

A plan for the future is the goal of all high school students. Some students wish to enter the world of business and industry upon completion of high school. Others desire careers that require additional formal education. The guidance counselor helps students on an individual and group basis to reach their goals by good educational planning. This planning—as realistic as possible for the individual in our modern society—is complementary to the whole school program.

Continental flavor has swept York this year with the enrollment of five foreign students, representing four different countries. Seniors Edgar Pusch and Margrit Koster are here from Germany. Margrit, visiting her aunt for a year, is impressed with the huge size of York. Edgar is sponsored by the International Christian Youth Exchange and journeyed here to "correct his knowledge" of America.

Representing Iraq is junior Sarmad Hermiz. While living with his brother, Sarmad hopes to complete high school and college in America.

Hatice Bayar, senior, comes from Turkey, although she has lived in England for two previous years. She is amazed at the differences in language between the English and Americans. Reina Hernandez arrived from Mexico to complete her sophomore year. She discovered that students change classes instead of teachers as is done in Mexico.

Orchestra Jets to World's Fair for Performance

Highlight for the orchestra came this year when its members presented a concert in the main bandshell of the World's Fair in New York City in April. Students traveled to the Fair by jet and spent two days on a sight-seeing tour of the city. The orchestra performed at other important events including the fall, spring, and Christmas concerts. This group sponsored "Midnite in Paris"—an all-school semi-formal dance, performed at the tea for Mr. Jones, played at teas and dinners in their role as a service group to the community, and served as hosts for the State Music Festival in which eleven members of the orchestra participated. Mr. Leo Pondelick is the director of York's excellent concert orchestra.

Twenty-three Spanish students were inducted March 8 as charter members of Gutierrez Najera, York's chapter of National Spanish Honorary for Secondary Schools. Sponsoring this new honorary is Mrs. V. Najera.

There are 361 similar chapters in the United States, Spain, and the Canal Zone. Membership in the society is limited in number; one can become a member only after three semesters of Spanish, and once initiated can continue to be a member only as long as he is enrolled in Spanish. Its purpose is to recognize consistent excellence in Spanish and to promote continuity of interest in Hispanic studies. It is a national educational society.

Defensive back Dave Booth stops a Lyons foe after short gain in Homecoming game.

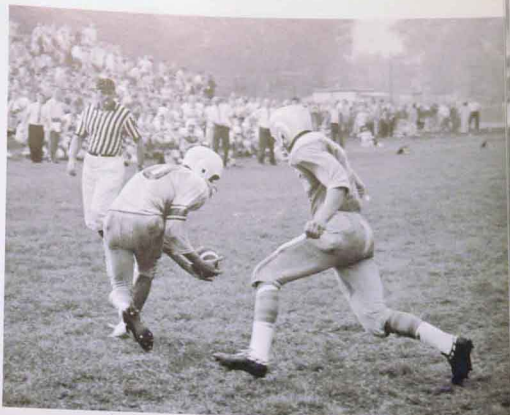

Dukes Win 5; Take 4th in WSC

The York Dukes finished the 1964 campaign in 4th place in the tough West Suburban Conference behind Lyons, Hinsdale, and Glenbard West, with a conference record of four wins and three losses. Coach Alex Naidenovich's varsity gridders opened the season quickly by easily crushing both Willowbrook, 26-13, and Downers Grove, 29-12, but they were upset in their next game by the stubborn Cardinals from Arlington in a very close game, 8-7. The Green and White rebounded from this defeat by taking three out of their last five games, beating Riverside-Brookfield, Hinsdale, and Maine East, but succumbing to Lyons Township and Glenbard West.

York placed six players on the all-conference team this year. Quarterback Paul Suckow was the leading scorer in the conference with 45 points to his credit. Halfback Jim Paddock was the workhorse of the backfield, carrying the ball 108 times for 936 yards and an 8.7 yards-per-carry average. Halfback Jeff Licht and linemen Neil Budelsky, Lou Drinka, and Toby Ginder were also named to the all-conference team. Guy Homoly and Budelsky were co-captains of the Dukes for this season. Next year the Dukes will have five junior letter winners back to bolster the 1965 varsity squad. Among them are Lou Drinka, Dean Hill, John Mauzey, Pete Mastro, and Ted Mosier.

Jim Paddock, all conference halfback, gained almost half of the Dukes' total yardage for the season.

Barons Place 8th in Rugged WSC

After thoroughly trouncing Willowbrook in their first game of the season, 33—6, the 1964 Barons dropped six out of their last seven games, giving them a conference record of no wins, six losses, and one tie. Coach Donald Layne's sophomore gridders concluded a rather disappointing season by tying the Little Demons from Maine East, 7—7, on York's home field.

Halfback Cary Brown was the leading rusher for the Barons, rambling 567 yards during the season for an 8.2 yards-per-carry average. Russ Standlee and Roger Tyk were standouts on defense. The 1965 season will be a good one for the Barons as Coach Cecil Stinson's excellent freshman team will be back next year trying to bring to York a sophomore conference championship.

The Barons closed out the 1965 campaign with seventeen straight victories enroute to an undefeated WSC slate and an overall record of 19—2. The Frosh-Soph had the best defense in the conference, holding their opponents to 38.7 points per game while scoring 54.4.

Derrik Grove led all scorers this season with 264 points while Most Valuable Chris Schweer tallied 254 points and grabbed 277 rebounds, a soph record. Spencer Sartorius wins the shotput in a dual meet with Proviso.

The 1964 York track season was one of the best in York's history, with both the Varsity and Frosh-Soph teams winning many honors. In the State meet, George Fantozzi's 1st place in the discus and Kipp Melchior's 3rd place in the pole vault paved the way for York's 7th place finish. The Dukes also won the 1964 Morton West District Meet, the DuPage County Meet, the Rockford Relays, and finished the season with an excellent 12-2 record in dual meets.

The Frosh-Soph also had an excellent season with a dual meet record of 13-1-1. The Barons overwhelmed all opposition in the conference meet, and set 6 conference records while taking 1st place.

The Green Machine set 67 records during the 1964 season, evidence of the fine coaching of Coach Joe Newton and Assistant Coaches Alex Naidenovich and Clark Fischer. Bolstered by returning lettermen and such sophomore standouts as Lou Drinka and Ted Mosier, the Dukes are hopeful of having another fine team during the 1965 season.

Dukes Finish 2nd in WSC; F-S Win WSC Tournament

This past season was one of York's finest on the links as the Varsity copped second in the WSC and the sophomores took 3rd. The Frosh-Soph also won the WSC tournament.

Coach Tom Nelson's Dukes highlighted their fine season by setting records of 308, low Varsity score, and low individual score of 75 by Bill Shipman. The Barons also had a fine low team score of 324, and low individual score of 74 by George Rosenhagen—both York records. Rick Carlson led the Dukes with the lowest average among the Varsity. The lowest averages for sophomores were attained by Steve Engebretson and George Rosenhagen.

Both Dukes and Barons achieved records of 4—3 and 3—4 respectively in conference play. York's golf future is bright as Steve Engebretson, Bill Thompson, Dale Tellefsen, Dan Wolter, Russ Polard, and Paul Wukasch, numeral winners, return to try for a Varsity golf championship.

Dr. R. Bruce Allingham, District 88 Superintendent.

Administrators, Board Guide District 88 Education

The people of our several communities served by York and Willowbrook High Schools have every reason to be proud of the "SPIRIT OF DISTRICT 88". These two outstanding schools clearly reflect the desire of thousands of parents and other adults who make their homes here that our boys and girls shall have the opportunity to develop to the fullest those abilities and talents and interests which each of them possesses.

To the teachers and others associated with the educational program of these schools, must go a large measure of commendation from all of us for their continuing efforts to insist upon high standards of achievement from every student, with goals realistically set according to the potential ability of the student.

To our pupils, who constantly make us proud of their accomplishments as students and as citizens, we gladly extend praise and encouragement for a bright future. We demand much of these young people, and they almost invariably reward us with heartening results that mark the reality of a spirit noteworthy in District 88.

Dr. R. Bruce Allingham

Around the Conference Table: Mr. Jack Monts, Administrative Assistant for Business Affairs; Mr. Robert Bond, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds; Dr. W. P. Treloar, Administrative Assistant for Adult Education and Information Services; Mr. David Koch, Administrative Assistant for District Personnel; Superintendent, Dr. Allingham.

DISTRICT 88 BOARD OF EDUCATION: Mr. Vernon Jon Benz, Mr. William A. Kroepelin, Dr. Melvin H. Mueller, Mr. Milton F. Darr, Jr., Mr. John Holbrook, Secretary; Mr. Louis L. Ackerman, President; Mr. Lyle R. Cahoon.

Educational institutions of renown consist of more than bricks and books. Those that are truly illustrious embody a spirit of greatness that motivates the faculty members and students in their daily work. The Spirit of York causes students to have pride in the quality of their academic work, to cooperate with their fellow students in out-of-class activities, and to work harmoniously with faculty members in the pursuit of excellence. The desire to "go an extra mile" is the spirit that has made and will continue to make York Community High School a fine educational institution. May the graduates of York carry this spirit with them throughout their lives. May the undergraduates cultivate this spirit and thus perpetuate the Spirit of York.

V. A. Jones

Mr. V. A. Jones, Principal, York Community High School.

Linda Canale serves Mrs. Knudson and Mrs. Allingham from the attractive tea table.

WELCOME, MR. JONES!

York has long been associated with many fine traditions. The pursuit of academic excellence and the search for perfection in all extracurricular endeavors have won York much esteem. On behalf of the York student body, I should like to welcome our new principal, Mr. V. A. Jones, to York and to the York Tradition. I am sure that I reflect the beliefs of all York students in expressing my confidence that York, under the leadership of Mr. Jones, will continue to build upon its reputation and enhance its dynamic character.

Pictures have been taken, copy has been written, and the last shipment of pages has been sent to the printer. The Spirit of York, incorporated in the 1965 Y's Tales, has been completed and preserved between these covers. We regret that York's large enrollment forced us to crowd many of the pictures. We hope that you'll overlook the flaws and gain a great deal of pleasure in exploring the 1965 Spirit of York.

Acknowledgment is here made for support and special help from the following: Mr. E. C. Hackleman, representative of the printers of Y's Tales, American Yearbook Company; Mr. Leander Hagerty and Mr. Sam Becker, Gibson Studios; Miss Marian Johnson, Art Staff Director; Mrs. Lucile Albert, Y's Tales Director; York Administration and Faculty; Mrs. Thor Holter; the Y's Tales Staff, and the entire student body of York who made this book possible.
