

Rock Cut Trivia Night

Backyard Campout

May 2020

Thanks for playing trivia during your backyard campout! The most important rule is that no cell phones are allowed! In other words, no cheating. :) You can grade yourselves -- each question is worth one point unless otherwise noted.

True or False

1. Sharks don't have any bones. (True)
2. Acorns come from pine trees. (False - Oak trees)
3. Abraham Lincoln was the first President of the United States. (False - George Washington)
4. A kid is the proper term for a baby goat. (True)

15. Which planet in our solar system is known for having a ring? (Saturn)
16. In what city in Europe would you find the Eiffel Tower? (Paris)

The bonus round works just like Final Jeopardy: you can bet points on this question! Each team can bet anywhere from zero up to their current point tally. Bets must be made before the question is read. If the question is answered incorrectly, subtract points for your final score; if the question is answered correctly, add points! Note: this is optional for kids - they can just play like normal if they'd like!

Geography

What is the largest state in the United States?

(Alaska)
