

MEDIA CONTACT

Rachel Oppermann, Visit Estes Park/EVRC

roppermann@visitestepark.com

970-586-0500 x 1221

Access COVID-19 recovery resources on visitestepark.com

The Estes Valley Resiliency Collaborative (EVRC) is working with Visit Estes Park to host a comprehensive list of resources to support recovery from the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic. Resources listed attempt to address the dynamic areas of concern of the Estes Park community – residents, businesses and guests – including:

- COVID-19 Vaccine Information
- Colorado's Dial Framework & Resources
- Larimer County Level Up Program
- Business Grants and Funding
- Business Operation Resources
- COVID-19 Data: Federal, State, Municipal
- Food, Housing & Financial Relief
- Family Resources
- Volunteer
- Donate
- Health & Wellness
- Need Help?
- Centro de recursos familiares

Find these resources by visiting

www.visitestepark.com/transparency/covid-19-business-recovery-resources/. This page is updated as new information becomes available. Email Assistant Town Administrator and EVRC facilitator Jason Damweber at jdamweber@estes.org to request the addition of resources. Recursos en Español disponibles en la parte inferior de la página.

About the EVRC

The Estes Valley Resiliency Collaborative is a team of public, private and nonprofit partners who are working on economic resiliency and overall community health in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The EVRC is focused on sharing resources with each other and the community, and on strategizing specific, actionable ways to support a faster and more robust economic recovery. This collective of organizations and individuals has worked to produce or support a number of initiatives to help the Estes Valley weather the unknown and likely lasting impacts of the pandemic today, while also laying the groundwork for a more sustainable and connected community for years to come. Learn what the EVRC has achieved and is currently working on by visiting www.estes.org/evrc.

The EVRC is a collective of volunteers who care deeply about the economic and social vitality of the Estes Valley. The group is administered by the Town of Estes Park using existing staff resources.

EVRC partners include:

- Estes Area Lodging Association
- Estes Chamber of Commerce
- Estes Park Economic Development Corporation
- Estes Park Nonprofit Resource Center
- Estes Park Housing Authority
- Estes Park Police Department
- Estes Park School District
- Estes Valley Public Library
- Rocky Mountain National Park
- Salud Family Health Center
- Town of Estes Park
- Visit Estes Park
- YMCA of the Rockies

###