

What to do in Estes when you don't know what to do

Visit these outlying areas of RMNP, they're open. Roads, parking areas and trails in Wild Basin, Longs Peak, Lily Lake, Twin Sisters, Lumpy Ridge and US 34 through the Fall River Entrance to Many Parks Curve as well as the Endovalley Road. Old Fall River Road will be open to bicycles, leashed pets and walkers. Then do this:

Pick Your Perfect Coffee Shop

There are ten coffee shops in our little mountain town. What sets each apart is not the selection of specialty lattes or the type of roast used – each and every cup is delicious (and yes, we are biased but hey, it's true!) – but the shop itself. These shops are more than just coffee.

Bond Park Picnic

Walk Lake Estes

Get Your Sweet On - Saltwater Taffy

A common question from folks walking Elkhorn Avenue (the main drag downtown) is “what’s up with all the taffy?” Enjoy your taffy and find out what actually is up.

Design Your Own Craft Beverage Tour

Estes has four breweries, a winery and a distillery, all locally owned and operated. Find your favorite sipping beverage or set out on an adventure to try something new.

Create an Art Tour

Art is the personality of any town, but especially in a town like Estes that has so much inspiration living in its back and front yards. Take an art class, shop for local art, peruse galleries. Create your stops here.

Get in the Holiday Spirit!
Catch the Glow Festival of Lights
Starting Nov 27 at the Events Complex

Spectators will be able to drive "through" the parade floats in the comfort, safety, and warmth of their own vehicles. Santa himself will greet everyone as they pass. As always, this event is free of charge.
