

ROAD TO ESTES PARK

PRINTABLE
Car Games

MadLibs Game

Remember:

The key is not knowing the story while you fill in the blanks. It's way more fun that way!

How to Play

Option 1: Two-Player Mode

Play with a friend! Ask them to give you words for each blank (e.g., adjective, noun, verb) without showing them the story.

Once all the blanks are filled, read the story out loud for a good laugh!

Option 2: Solo Mode

Playing alone? No problem! Fill in each blank on your own—just don't peek at the story until you've completed them all.

The surprise twist at the end is half the fun!

WILDLIFE ENCOUNTER

Story!

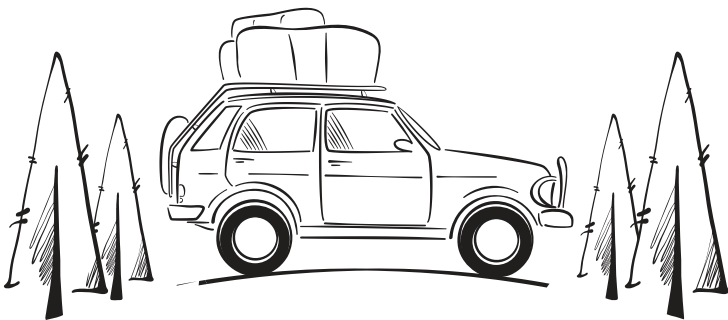

1 of 3

On our _____ drive through Estes Park, we were cruising in a _____ when suddenly, (Adjective) (Type of vehicle)
we had to _____ to avoid hitting a moose! My _____ was shaking, and I made a (Verb) (Body part) sound like _____.
(Sound)

A friendly _____ came over to check if we were okay, but just then, a giant (Occupation)
_____ wandered out of the trees. It looked us in the eyes with a _____ stare and (Animals) (Adjective)
started _____ toward us.
(Verb ending in -ing)

To distract it, I threw a bag of _____ out the window.
(Type of food)

" _____!" my friend yelled, and we sped off toward _____, never looking back.
(Exclamation) (Place)

We set up camp at Rocky Mountain National Park with only _____, _____ full of _____. After we _____ our tent, we sat around the fire feeling very _____.

(Number) (Type of container) (Plural noun) (Verb ending in -ed) (Emotion)

Suddenly, a _____ creaked in the wind, and a swarm of _____ flew into our s'mores! It was _____ chaos. I tried to _____, but tripped over a log and fell right into the firewood pile.

(Type of tree) (Insect (plural)) (Adjective) (Verb)

That's when _____ appeared from the shadows and said, " _____!" which somehow made everything better.

(Famous person) (Silly phrase)

We ended the night staring at the stars and sharing a single, slightly burnt _____.

(Noun)

Last weekend, I went on a(n) _____ trip to Estes Park, Colorado. As soon as we arrived, a herd of _____, _____ right through the parking lot! I quickly grabbed my _____ and felt incredibly _____.

(Adjective) (Animal (plural)) (Verb (past tense)) (Noun) (Emotion)

We spent the morning hiking through the Rocky Mountains, surrounded by towering pine trees and curious _____. While we were _____, the sky suddenly turned _____, and we had to find shelter under a _____ rock.

(Plural noun) (Verb ending in -ing) (Type of weather) (Adjective)

" _____!" I shouted, as lightning struck near the _____.

(Exclamation) (Famous landmark (real or fictional))

Once the storm passed, we headed into town for some _____ fudge and a souvenir that makes a sound like _____ when you shake it. We finished the day by riding a _____ back to the cabin, exhausted but happy.

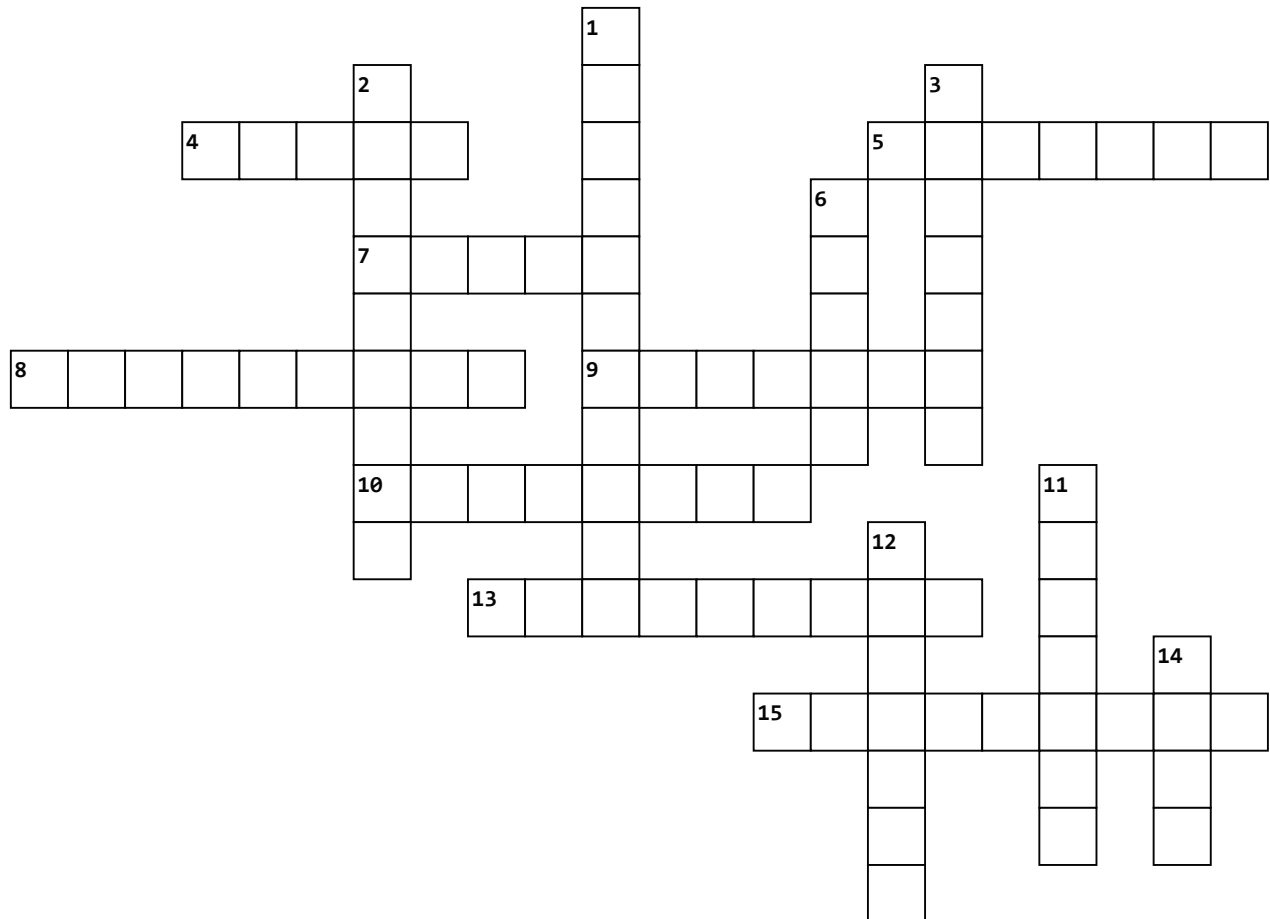

(Adjective) (Silly sound) (Mode of transportation)

Estes Park is definitely wild, weird, and wonderful!

Crossword Game

MOUNTAINS, TRAILS, RIVERS & LAKES

Across

- 4. River named after a type of bird, but it's a waterway here
- 5. Mountain with a level summit popular for hiking
- 7. A peaceful lake named after a forest spirit
- 8. Beautiful place where you can imagine fun stories
- 9. Rocks and dirt left behind by a glacier
- 10. A body of water that shares its name with the town
- 13. The tallest mountain in the park
- 15. A scenic area with trails and waterfalls

Down

- 1. River that flows through Estes Park
- 2. Waterfall near Bear Lake named after a green plant
- 3. Huge ice that moves slowly down mountains
- 6. Path you walk on to explore the park
- 11. Lake known for its bright green water
- 12. Rocky peak near Bear Lake famous for its jagged shape
- 14. A flower that grows near water in the park