GALLERIES, MUSEUMS & MURALS

1 Morris Graves Museum of Art

This elegantly restored circa 1904 Carnegie Library, once slated for destruction, now houses hundreds of national and regional works, seven galleries, a courtyard sculpture garden, gift store, and classrooms and performance rotunda that hold frequent youth and cultural events. Closed Mon-Tues. 636 F St., Eureka
humboldtarts.org | 707-442-0278

2 Ink People – Brenda Tuxford Gallery

An artist-run, community-based organization dedicated to weaving culture into the fabric of the community, the Ink People hosts films, events, workshops, youth programs, facilities for painters, printmakers and performance artists, and a gallery to showcase all the creative output. Call for hours. 627 3rd St., Eureka | inkpeople.org
707-442-8413

3 Redwood Art Association Gallery

With more than 300 artists and supporters, the association displays a range of works from natural landscapes to found objects to abstract sculptures, made by members and others, in a historic downtown storefront. Of note, its annual photography contest and curated sculpture garden on the C Street waterfront plaza. Wed-Sun. 603 F St., Eureka
