Evansville: where history meets modernity.

From its early days as a thriving commercial town with river trade, to the manufacturing powerhouse that supported the exorts of WWII, Evansville has always been a major center of industry. And it's through that pioneering spirit that the city continues to evolve.

Whether you're looking to explore the shops in vibrant downtown or enjoy a game at the sports park, Evansville can offer it all.

Evansville is known for its deep-rooted history and beautiful location on the bend of the Ohio River. Attend a jazz show at the Reitz Home Museum or enjoy a beer at Myriad Brewing Company located in the renovated McCurdy building. Take a riverside stroll on the Greenway or take a look into the past at the Wartime Museum. Explore Evansville and find your fun!

IN INDIANA™

DAY 1

MORNING

Parlor Donuts: Enjoy the perfectly delicious cross between a croissant and a donut housed in the historic Bitterman Building.

Reitz Home Museum: Return to the days of Victorian elegance and grandeur by touring this historic gem in the heart of Downtown Evansville.

AFTERNOON

Bru Burger: Munch on something delicious inside the refurbished, Art Deco style Greyhound Bus Station.

Evansville African American Museum: Tour the preserved living quarters of Evansville's first Black community, and immerse visitors into a culture that shaped our city.

EVENING:

Haynie's Corner Arts District: Welcome to where art lives! Dine on exquisite dishes inside Victorian Era homes at Sauced, Madeline's, or Schymik's Kitchen, then stop by Mo's House, voted the Best Craft Cocktails in Evansville!

You're a short walk back to your room at the Hyatt Place Evansville Downtown, offering comfortable rooms and suites with all the amenities of home.

DAY 2

MORNING

Kite & Key Cafe: Start your morning with a strong cup of coffee and a breakfast sandwich at this West Franklin Street favorite!

Wesselman Woods: Walk the trails of the largest old-growth forest within any city limits in the United States!

AFTERNOON

2nd Language: Indulge in a cross-cultural dining experience at this ramen kitchen serving vibrant Southeast Asian cuisine.

USS LST 325: Tour the last Landing Ship Tank still in operation as you hear stories of Evansville's WWII efforts. Evansville is one of only 19 cities designated as a WWII American Heritage City by the National Parks Department.

EVENING:

Main Street: Stroll down Main Street and shop our eclectic small businesses, like My Brother's Bookstore, Sixth and Zero, and Posh on Main. End the night at Arcademie, and challenge your friends with any of their classic arcade games while sipping on craft cocktails!

When you're ready to turn in, you're only eight blocks from your "room with a view" at the Holiday Inn Express Downtown featuring waterfront views of the Ohio River.

DAY 3

MORNING

Donut Bank: Fuel up on coffee and a bite from Evansville's favorite bakery for over 50 years!

Angel Mounds Historic Site: Located on the banks of the Ohio River, this archaeological attraction is one of the best-preserved, prehistoric Native American sites in North America.

AFTERNOON

Turon's on Main: Grab a locally made brew and a slice of pie crisp and light enough to hold our secret sauce, gobs of cheese, and your favorite ingredients.

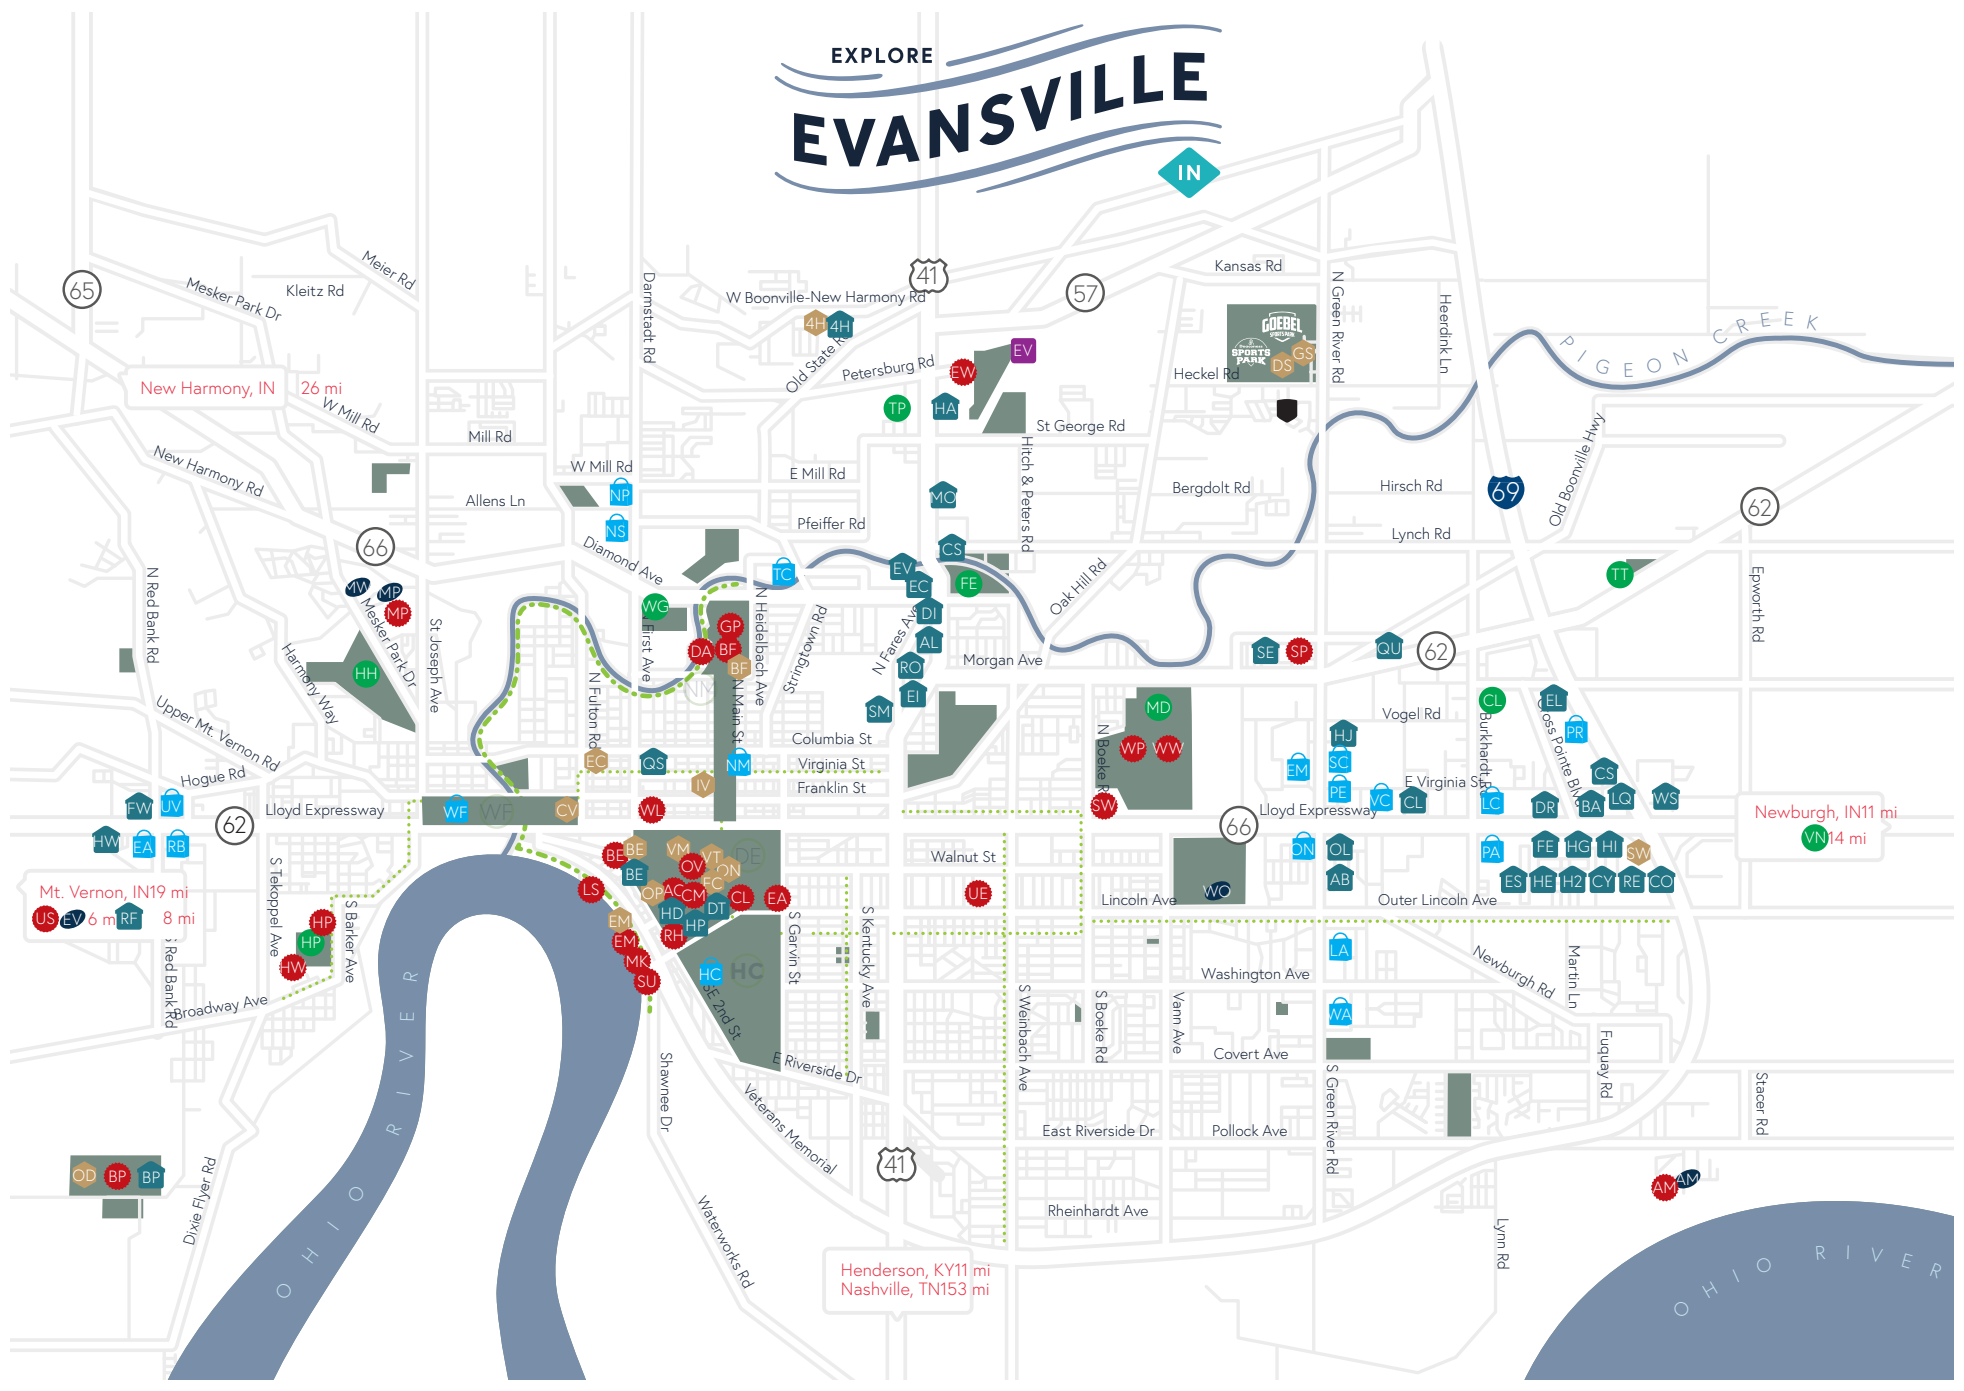

Evansville Museum of Arts, History & Science: This riverfront museum features collections in art, history, anthropology and science, as well as the Koch Immersive Theater & Planetarium.

EVENING:

Finish your trip at Bally's Casino Resort. Featuring over 950 slot games, over 30 live and electronic games and a High Limit Room, your jackpot awaits! Recharge with dinner at Cavanaugh's On the River, offering delectable surf and turf set to a relaxing piano bar. Retire to your spacious hotel room mere steps away, located onsite at Bally's Evansville.
