

Fairfax County, Virginia
Connect with America

MEETINGS, CONFERENCES, AND CONVENTIONS

Look no further than Fairfax County for your next meeting, conference, or convention.

Attractions — Northern Virginia's history is America's history. From the 18th century to outer space and everything in between, Fairfax County serves as the perfect base camp to see all that the region has to offer.

Washington, DC — Directly across the Potomac River, the nation's capital city awaits with all of the Monuments, Memorials and Museums for which the National Capital Region is famous.

Easy Access — Fairfax County is served by three airports: Washington Dulles International, Reagan Washington National, and Baltimore-Washington International Marshall, as well as three major interstate highways, Amtrak, and Virginia Railway Express.

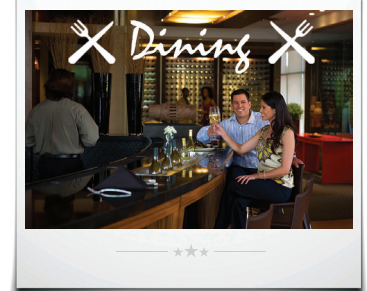

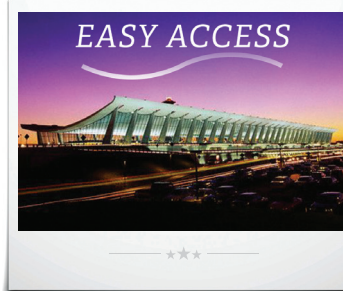

Metro — You can get there from here! Metrorail offers an incredibly convenient way for meeting attendees to get around to some of the area's most notable attractions from their affordable hotel in Fairfax County.

Meeting Facilities — With over 100 hotels and 19,000 guest rooms, Fairfax County hotels offer a wide range of meeting facilities to meet your needs. Twenty different hotels accommodate meetings with more than 5,000 square feet of event space while four hotels offer more than 30,000 square feet of space.

Dining — From upscale to casual, Fairfax County is home to hundreds of great restaurants featuring American and International cuisines to satisfy every palate and every budget.

Shopping — When the business for the day is done, be sure to leave ample time for shopping! Fairfax County offers some of the best shopping on the East Coast—from over 450 stores and restaurants in the Tysons Corner shopping district to boutique and one-of-a-kind shops for those who prefer something off the beaten path.

Night Life — Fairfax County has a host of options for a crazy or relaxing night out in Northern Virginia. Whether it's a Friday night or Tuesday night, there is always something to do in one of our many bars, live music venues, movies theaters, or clubs.

For more information, visit fxva.com

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS OF CHOOSING FAIRFAX COUNTY

Fairfax County, Virginia is an ideal place to hold your meeting, conference, or convention. Our proximity to Washington, DC and our unique attractions make us the best event value in Northern Virginia. Our complimentary assistance with site selection is available for groups like yours. Let us go to work for you!

NATIONAL TREASURES

1. Arlington National Cemetery
2. George Washington's Mount Vernon
3. Smithsonian's National Air and Space Museum Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center
4. The US Capitol
5. The White House
6. Wolf Trap

HISTORIC SITES

7. Civil War Battlefields
8. Claude Moore Colonial Farm
9. Frank Lloyd Wright's Pope-Leighey House
10. George Mason's Gunston Hall
11. Woodlawn Historic Site

ARTS & CULTURE

12. 1st Stage Tysons
13. George Mason University's Center for the Arts
14. NextStop Theatre Company
15. The Workhouse Arts Center

WINERIES & BREWERIES

16. Aslin Beer Company
17. Caboose Brewing Co.
18. Fair Winds Brewing Company
19. Forge Brew Works
20. Lake Anne Brew House
21. Paradise Springs Winery
22. The Winery at Bull Run

Nearby: over 80 wineries in Northern Virginia

NATURE & OUTDOORS

23. Great Falls Park
24. Mason Neck State Park & Wildlife Refuge
25. Meadowlark Botanical Gardens
26. River Farm

ADVANTAGES FOR CHOOSING FAIRFAX COUNTY

- Choose from a variety of upscale meetings hotels representing highly regarded national brands.
- Fairfax County hotels often offer highly advantageous rates compared to hotels in nearby DC.
- Many Fairfax County hotels feature free and ample parking.
- Low room and food & beverage taxes help keep costs manageable.
- Many groups report an increase of 8 to 10%, or more, due to Fairfax County's desirable and highly marketable location.
- We want to put Visit Fairfax's award-winning service at your fingertips!