

FOR YOUR INNER ARTIST

DISTINCTLY
FAYETTEVILLE

Start your visit to Cumberland County off with a stop into one of our many coffee shops! Rude Awakening Coffee House and Blanc Coffee Roasters both offer a variety of coffees and teas that can be paired with a delicious pastry, perfect for a late morning bite.

Next, head into Downtown Fayetteville to explore our diverse selection of art! The Arts Council of Fayetteville & Cumberland County, Cape Fear Studios, & Gallery 13 will be sure to leave you inspired by their beautiful displays.

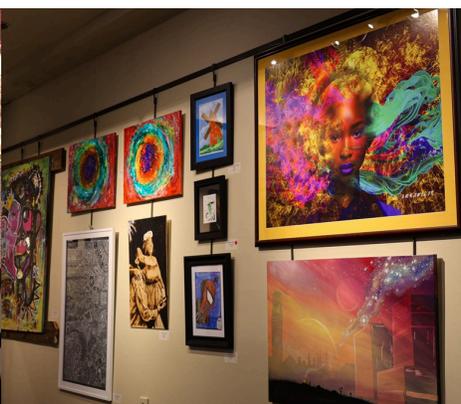

Looking to do something more hands on? Paint your own pottery at Greg's Pottery or Just Claying Around! Or, sign up for a candle making class at Scented Wicks Candle Bar in Hope Mills. Here, you can craft your own unique scent to take back home.

DID YOU KNOW...

Fayetteville outranks foodie hotspots like LA and Raleigh in food trucks per capita? With 45 food trucks per 100,000 residents, our city is a true food truck paradise!

Close out your day at Haymount Truck Stop for delicious eats and elevated cocktails. For a more family friendly spot, check out Dirtbag Ales Brewery & Taproom. Grab a bite from one of the rotating food trucks (available Thurs. through Sun.) or their very own Napkins Restaurant (available daily).

FOR THE MUSIC LOVER

On day two, let's dive further into Cumberland County's culture! With so much to see and do, start the day off with a light avocado toast or a mimosa at Bees & Boards Restaurant + Provision Company. For a quicker option, grab a breakfast sandwich or a bagel at Pan!

Keep your morning quiet by taking a stroll through the Cape Fear Botanical Garden. Here, you'll find 80 acres of gardens and trails to explore and immerse yourself in nature. If you're feeling a little more adventurous, head out to Spring Lake to explore ZipQuest, NC's top zip line park!

MORE YOU CAN DO
ONE DISTINCT DESTINATION.

Into drama and stage shows? Catch a play or musical at Gilbert Theatre or Cape Fear Regional Theatre. If you want to see a Shakespearean play, the Sweet Tea Shakespeare Company has you covered! Check out their websites for more information on showtimes.

If you have the chance, grab a ticket to see the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra. They only perform 8 shows per season, so it's something you don't want to miss!

Slow down your evening with a night at Mondrell's Social Lounge. Enjoy an Old Fashion or a Mojito in this soulful speakeasy. From live jazz to old school R&B, you're sure to have a good time! For a similar experience, check out The Livery Cigar Emporium just around the corner.

Looking for something a little more exciting? Check out Paddy's Irish Pub for a cold pint and one of their Country Fusion or Latin Nights! Or, go to Dirty Whiskey Craft Cocktails for a night out with one of their musical guests!
