

VICTORY MEANS MORE HERE.

A SPORTING HERITAGE

- 1914 - Babe Ruth hit his 1st home run as a professional baseball player with the Baltimore Orioles in Fayetteville, NC.
- Cumberland County has produced 11+ "hometown heroes," including Dennis Smith, Jr. (NBA), Brad Edwards, Donnell Woolford, Marvin Powell, Doug Wilkerson and Harry Sydney (NFL).
- Methodist University won 59 national championships in 50 years and captured 116 conference championships, amassing 286 All-Americans and 51 Academic All-Americans.
- 2012 - Cape Fear Heroes were undefeated, winning the American Indoor Football League Championship.
- 1983-91 - Fayetteville served as host for the ACC women's basketball championship tournament. At both our universities, women's sports outnumber men's.
