- Claim to Fame: Your journey to our little town includes the scenic and rural backdrops of beautiful south central Tennessee. Once you arrive, you can taste and experience our authentic small-town charm – the kind that takes you back to another time and pace. We have a cute historic downtown square made for Hallmark movies (we've actually had two made right here). You'll find an abundance of antique and specialty shops for locating some great treasures or gifts. You can also taste the world-famous Slawburger at one of our local dining spots or visit one of our two distilleries on the Tennessee Whiskey Trail. We are only 17 miles from the Jack Daniel's Distillery. If history is your thing, then look no further than the site at Camp Blount where Tennessee likely received its Volunteer State nickname.
