

10 Stid Hill Bristol, NY

Distance 37.4 miles

Difficulty ★ ★

As the name implies, Stid Hill sits on the side of a hill. Opposite Bristol Mountain Ski Resort, this large parcel was once productive sheep and cattle grazing land. The livestock are gone, but the steep hills, gullies, ravines, woods and open fields provide the perfect habitat for all kinds of wildlife. This challenging trail is prone to erosion due to the steepness of the hill. For those adventurous mountain bikers this is a must-do!
