

| Listing Number (RED=Dup) Next #: 293 | Ranking Code (Count Ranked Rcds): 3 | Marker Title (leave cell blank if no Formal Title) | Marker Common Name (if no Title)          | Marker Super-title / Sub-title                              | Marker Inscription  | Marker Sponsor / Erected By () | Type of Marker () | Marker Footnote Content   | Location / Street Address  | City / Village Address | Municipality / "Town" TAG | Latitude/Longitude Location |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|--|---|---|---|---------------------------------|--------------------|---|--|------------------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 079                                  |                                     | 1656 Chapel of St. Michael 1656                    |   | Village of Gandougarae — Joseph Chaumont First Missionary — | Nearby this very spot. Place where most of the Huron captives were brought after the Senecas destroyed and burned their homes in Huronia, 1649. (Midland) Where the chapel of St. Ignace, St. Marie and St. Joseph together with the murder of the Jesuit missionaries Saints De Groun - Lalemont - Chabanel - Daniels - Charles | Private Individual Sponsored    | Plaque, Rock       | Herman G. Hetzler   | [North Bloomfield Road (County Road 30) just east of Mudd Creek and across from the intersection of Wheeler Station Road. Marker is near 6369 North Bloomfield Road] | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.912792, -77.375463       |
| 080                                  |                                     | East Bloomfield Academy                            |   |   | Erected 1837-38. Restoration started 1969. Dedicated 1974 in honor of Mrs. Frank H. Steele, town of East Bloomfield Historian and founder and organizer of the Historical Society, Town of East Bloomfield, 1966. Benefactor to this and other deserving causes of the community.   | Historical Society Sponsored    | Plaque             |   | East Bloomfield Historical Society at 8 South Avenue [Near intersection of South Avenue and Park Place]  | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.896190, -77.434575       |
| 081                                  |                                     | East Bloomfield                                    |   |   | To the memory of her sons who died in defense of the Union 1861-5[Very long inscription on each side of this memorial monument (not listed here) of those who died in the following battles:  | Unknown                         | Monument           |   | Elton Park, across from First Congregational Church at 10 South Avenue [Near the intersection of South Avenue and State Street (US 20 NY 5)]                         | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.895612, -77.434023       |
| 082                                  |                                     | First Congregational Church                        |   |   | Has been placed on the National Register of Historic Places by the United States Department of the Interior. 1837   | US Federal Government           | Plaque             |   | 10 South Ave   | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.895595, -77.434929       |
| 083                                  |                                     | First Town Hall                                    |   | Logo of Multi-Story Building                                | Built c. 1841. Listed on State & National Registers of Historic Places through the diligent work of Ginny Schroeder Town Historian 2006-2014  | Historical Society Sponsored    | Sign, Blue         | East Bloomfield Historical Society                                | 6 Park Place, near cemetery entrance   | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.896100, -77.433216       |
| 084                                  | First                               | Former Academy                                     |   | NYS Icon  | Co-educational boarding school 1839-1909. Later became Crance Hall. Acquired by East Bloomfield Historical Society in 1970.   | William G. Pomeroy Foundation   | Sign, Blue         | William G. Pomeroy Foundation 2021 889                            | East Bloomfield Historical Society at 8 South Avenue [Near intersection of South Avenue and Park Place]  | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.896104, -77.434349       |
| 085                                  |                                     | Gandougarae  |   |   | Near this spot stood a village of Huron Christians, captives of the Senecas. Father Chaumont said here in 1656: "Myself I gave as a guarantee of the truth I preach."In a new chapel, dedicated Nov. 3, 1669, Father Fremin  | Private Individual Sponsored    | Plaque, Rock       |   | [North Bloomfield Road (County Road 30) just east of Mudd Creek and across from the intersection of Wheeler Station Road. Marker is near 6369 North Bloomfield Road] | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.912792, -77.375463       |
| 086                                  |                                     | Gandougarae  |   | New York w/ NYS Icon  | Town of captive Hurons stood near here. Destroyed by Denonville July 17, 1687. Earliest Christian community in Genesee country.   | NYS Dept of Education           | Sign, Blue         | State Education Department 1936                                   | [Near intersection of Wheeler Station Road and US 20 NY 5]   | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.883214, -77.380360       |
| 087                                  |                                     | Holloway's Inn                                     |   | NYS Icon  | This tavern & inn built prior to 1813 by Peter Holloway, a blacksmith. Located on former Ontario & Genesee Turnpike.  | William G. Pomeroy Foundation   | Sign, Blue         | William G. Pomeroy Foundation 2021 795                            | 29 State Street [Near intersection of South Avenue and State Street (US 20 NY 5)]  | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.895224, -77.435440       |
| 088                                  |                                     | The Seneca Indian Village of Gandougarae           |   |   | Later the Jesuit mission of St. Michael was situated near this spot in the township of East Bloomfield. Mass was said here by Fr. Fremont November 3, 1669 Visited by La Salle in 1669 Found burning by Denonville after the Battle at Gandagaro (Boughton Hill) July 1687  | NYS & Local Government          | Plaque, Rock       | Erected by The State of New York and Town of East Bloomfield 1937 | [Southwest corner of Elton Park, near intersection of South Avenue and State Street (US 20 NY 5)]  | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.895259, -77.434498       |
| 089                                  |                                     |  | Herman G Hetzler Monuments - MISSING SIGN |   |   |                                 |                    |   |  |                        | Town of East Bloomfield   |                             |

| Listing Number (RED=Dup) Next #: 293 | Ranking Code (Count Ranked Rcds): 3 | Marker Title (leave cell blank if no Formal Title) | Marker Common Name (if no Title)                      | Marker Super-title / Sub-title   | Marker Inscription   | Marker Sponsor / Erected By () | Type of Marker () | Marker Footnote Content   | Location / Street Address   | City / Village Address | Municipality / "Town" TAG | Latitude/Longitude Location |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|--|---|--|--|---------------------------------|--------------------|---|---|------------------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 090                                  |                                     |  | Memorial War Plaques - WW I, WW II, Vietnam, Veterans |  | [4 plaques, flush with the ground, at each of the four corners of Elton Park's Civil War Monument, read as follows:][Vietnam] This plaque is a memorial to these Bloomfield veterans who lost their lives in Viet Nam. James Savvy                           | Unknown                         | Plaque             |   | Elton Park, across from First Congregational Church at 10 South Avenue [Near the intersection of South Avenue and State Street (US 20)]                             | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.895612, -77.434023       |
| 091                                  | Educ                                | History Of This Road                               |   | "An Indian Trail worn so deep by the feet of the Iroquois that it became your road of travel!" | John Adams and sons built near here in 1788 the first dwelling erected West of CanandaiguaRoad first surveyed by Cares Rose in 1793 Two years later a strip had been cleared, bridges built and road made passable for yoke of oxen. First stage passed here | NYS & Local Government          | Plaque, Rock       | Erected by State of New York 1934 [Year not readable]                                 | [Just west of the intersection of Hillcrest Drive and US 20 NY 5, on the north side of US 20 NY 5. AS OF 02/07/2024 MARKER IS NOT ACCESSIBLE DUE TO GROWTH OF TREES | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.891879, -77.424646       |
| 092                                  | Educ                                |  | Northern Spy Apple Tree                               |  | The original Northern Spy Apple Tree stood about 14 rods south of this spot, in a seedling orchard planted by Heman Chapin about 1800. The Early Joe and Melon Apple also originated in this orchard.  | Unknown                         | Plaque             |   | [Opposite private address of 7226 Boughton Road (not Boughton Hill Road). Location is approximately 0.9 miles from intersection with NY 444 and Boughton Road]      | Victor, NY 14564       | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.928006, -77.431817       |
| 093                                  |                                     |  | Charles R. White Monument                             |  | Near this site dwelt Charles R. White 1864 - 1954 Farmer - Officer - Organizer and Worker towards a better country life  | Private Individual Sponsored    | Plaque, Rock       | In appreciation - This bolder ?? here erected to his memory - by his friends ??? 1955 | [Approximately 75 feet off the road, on the southwest side of NY 64, south of the hamlet of Ionia and just north of County Road 39.]                                | Victor, NY 14564       | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.928979, -77.478671       |
| 094                                  |                                     | Town of Bloomfield                                 |   | NYS Icon   | Ca. 1789. John Adams arrived with family & several others. Built 3 log homes near this site, in what later became town of East Bloomfield.   | William G. Pomeroy Foundation   | Sign, Blue         | William G. Pomeroy Foundation 2020 765  | [On N. Bloomfield Road (County Road 30), west of Brace Road]  | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.912797, -77.372493       |
| 095                                  |                                     |  | Elton Park Gateway Entrance and Memorial              |  | [At the top of the gateway arch is a stone crest with "Elton Park" inscribed, followed by a stone key with "In Memoriam" inscribed. Next listed on the arch is the name "Charlotte ??? Steele Elton".][Flanking each side of the arch are memorial plaques   | Private Individual Sponsored    | Monument           |   | Elton Park, on State Street (US 20 NY 5) between the State Street intersections with South Avenue and Park Place]   | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.895188, -77.434250       |
| 096                                  |                                     | Site of Original Burial Grounds                    |   |  | [Multiple plaques at location, with entrance plaque / stone inscribed with "By Resolution of First Congregational Church 1838"][Other plaques (2) contain listings of individuals interred at the old burial ground (too numerous to list here), and         | Private Individual Sponsored    | Plaque, Rock       |   | Behind East Bloomfield Historical Society at 8 South Avenue [Near intersection of South Avenue and Park Place]  | Bloomfield, NY 14469   | Town of East Bloomfield   | 42.896104, -77.434883       |