Flagler Beach

“Where the Food Rivals the View”

The Funky Pelican

THE VIBE:

An iconic spot in the heart of Flagler Beach. Boasting bright flavors, a drink menu filled with creative concoctions, and waterfront views, The Funky Pelican is a fun, family-friendly locale.

Order the twisted seafood mac for a coastal take on a comfort classic.

Flagler Fish Company

THE VIBE:

Part restaurant, part seafood market—totally delicious. At Flagler Fish Company, you can feast on fried shrimp, homemade crabcakes, and creamy lobster bisque in a casual setting.

Or select your own piece of fresh fish from the display case and they'll cook it to order...be it fried, steamed, seared, grilled, or blackened. Top off your meal with the jumbo peanut butter brownie. Served with vanilla ice cream, it's big (and decadent) enough to share.

The Island Grille

THE VIBE:

Savor mouthwatering entrees like wasabi salmon and braised short ribs at this restaurant that offers magnificent ocean views and an innovative menu. Housed inside of a 1920s mansion-turned-hotel, the restaurant is full of quirky vintage collectibles – giving it a unique ambiance. Be sure to take a stroll around after you’ve finished the crème brulee for dessert.

Java Joint

THE VIBE:

With its dog-friendly outdoor deck, delicious coffees and hearty breakfast, Java Joint has been a local’s favorite for more than a decade. Savor the crab cakes benedict, heaping breakfast burritos and fresh salads while taking in the ocean views. The restaurant also has delicious cappuccinos, lattes, bloody marys and champagne cocktails.

Johnny Lulgjuraj

Oceanside Beach Bar & Grill

1848 S. Oceanshore Blvd. Flagler Beach, FL 386.439.6345

Q: What is the atmosphere like at Oceanside?

JL: We are right on the ocean so our ocean view, with the unique coquina sands, sunrises and moonrises make the first floor patio and second floor deck with full bar very popular. The fresh ocean breeze really enhances the dining experience; you can almost taste the ocean at Oceanside.

Q: How did you break into the business?

JL: Growing up my mom and dad had the restaurant. I remember walking into the restaurant when I was 8 or 9, putting on an apron, busing tables, watching my dad handle customers and the cash register. It was fun. In 2010 my brother called and said the restaurant went up for sale and that he might be able to get it. We opened in eight months after a complete remodel.

Q: Tell us about some of your most popular dishes.

JL: Perhaps the most popular is our Beer Battered Fish and Chips where we use Yuengling beer in the batter, but another favorite is the Shrimp and Grits that has applewood smoked bacon, caramelized onion, heavy cream and a little magic seasoning we have with some parmesan, some garlic, some spices...we truly try to hit that ocean of flavor at Oceanside.

Q: And the most important ingredient for running a successful oceanside restaurant?

JL: My momma always said make everyone happy; no matter what never say no. We care about making you happy as a guest; if you are happy everyone is happy.

High Tides at Snack Jack

Flagler Beach

THE VIBE: A local favorite since 1947, High Tides at Snack Jack is a slice of Old Florida. This laid-back seafood shack is perched right on the water, with plenty of outdoor, pet-friendly seating. Inside, license plates and surfboards line the ceiling, and a casual bar offers patrons the perfect place to enjoy a cold beer.

THE FOOD & DRINK:

Expect nothing but good vibes and great eats. Nosh on fried scallops, ahi tuna sandwiches, and spicy po'boys, all served with hot hushpuppies. Or go big and feast on 2 pounds of steamed Alaskan crab legs. End your meal on a sweet note with the homemade Key lime tart.

mamaling

Palm Coast

THE VIBE: If you're in the mood to spend an evening with friends sharing delicious dishes and sipping on delicate cocktails, mamaling Asian Street Food is the place for you. The decor and ambiance of the dining room is homey, almost as if you've walked into a family-friend's home filled with treasures and art of Southeast Asia.

@fattytheefoodie

THE FOOD & DRINK: mamaling is the latest project from chef Hung Huynh, winner of Bravo's "TopChef" award in 2007. Explore the expansive menu of pho, ramen, Korean tacos, steamed buns, kimchi pancakes and lemongrass coconut curry. The Korean crispy chicken wings and adobo pork clay pot - a delicious mix of green beans, black pepper, caramel and egg - are always crowd pleasers.

Rodie's Place

THE VIBE: Nestled in the heart of The Hammock, Rodie's Place feels like a hidden gem—and it is. This casual roadside eatery is surrounded by towering trees and feels more like a friend's cozy kitchen than a restaurant. Whether you dine inside and watch the chef prep your meal or pull up a chair on the front porch, you'll feel right at home thanks to the friendly and attentive staff.

THE FOOD & DRINK: Here, breakfast is an all-day affair, with specialties like the sweet and crunchy French toast and corned beef and hash. Lunch options include the Rodie's Foil Dog: a beef hot dog topped with spicy Key Lime barbecue sauce, jalapeno Havarti, chopped onions, and bacon, then wrapped in foil and heated. Truly a dynamite bite. Insider tip: order homemade potato chips.

Top Tacos to Savor in Flagler Beach

Palm Coast and the Flagler Beaches is a haven for foodies, with many diverse restaurants serving delicious and unique fare. If you're craving tacos during your beach visit, you'll find the best right here. Whether you want them traditional or tropical, spicy or savory, served with stunning ocean vistas or paired with a delicious margarita, you'll get your taco fix in when you visit Flagler Beach.

Here is your taco trail road map:

Java Joint

A cup of the area's finest coffee and views of the sun rising over the ocean are what brings visitors and locals to Java Joint, but it's the scallop tacos that keeps them here through lunch. The scallops are grilled or blackened, served on soft tacos and topped with coleslaw, diced tomatoes, cheese, sour cream and salsa.

Turtle Shack

Across from the beach, you'll find the bright turquoise blue Turtle Shack. The cozy family-run eatery serves mahi-mahi tacos with the right amount of heat. The blackened mahi-mahi comes with crispy lettuce, fresh tomatoes and cheese. You'll love that the meal comes with three tacos since you'll definitely want more than one.

Break-Awayz

Heading toward downtown Flagler, your next spot for tacos with water views is Break-Awayz. A little bit Hawaiian and a little bit Asian, the poke tacos are packed with flavor. Sushi-grade raw tuna is marinated in sesame oil, ponzu, sesame seeds and green onions. It is then topped with Asian ginger slaw, wasabi aioli and green onions and served on three flour tortillas. Enjoy the poke tacos with a side of cold brew. The restaurant has more than 100 draft or bottled beers to choose from.

Golden Lion Café

Delicious seafood and a picture-perfect beachside location are a few reasons why Golden Lion Café is Palm Coast and the Flagler Beach's most awarded restaurant. Its Fresh Catch & Coconut Shrimp Taco is always a crowd pleaser. The day's fish is topped with coconut shrimp for a unique combination. Lettuce and shredded cheddar cheese come next, and the tacos are served with Golden Lion's tangy Key lime tartar sauce.

Funky Pelican

Take a stroll along the cinnamon-colored sand, then stop for a bite to eat on the deck of this popular Flagler Beach hangout. Feast on the decadently fried lobster tacos while taking in the panoramic ocean views. Juicy bites of lobster are served on warm flour tortillas with citrus slaw, pico de gallo, cheddar jack cheese and cilantro cream, with black beans and rice on the side.

The Anchor

Cruising south on A1A you can't miss the giant anchor that marks the next stop on the taco trail. Friendly staff, tasty seafood and a daily happy hour keep locals and visitors coming back to The Anchor. Its grilled shrimp tacos come with mango pico de gallo, shredded cabbage and citrus aioli. Order them with a side of sweet potato fries.

Tortugas Florida Kitchen & Bar

Enjoy Floribbean cuisine, live music and a two-story outdoor patio overlooking the Atlantic Ocean at Tortugas Florida Kitchen & Bar. This is the place to go to kick your vacation into high gear. Here, locals rave about the pork and pineapple tacos. Slow roasted mojo pulled pork is topped with homemade coleslaw and pineapple salsa. They're even better with one of Tortugas' hand-pressed margaritas.

Island Grille

A restored 1920s mansion brings a retro feel to the Island Grille at the Topaz Motel and Hotel. The restaurant is located near the inn's main entrance, with large windows providing ocean views. You'll definitely want to try the swordfish tacos. The fish is marinated in garlic and lime and topped with sweet and sour slaw, mango avocado salsa and Sriracha cream, and comes with a side of black beans and rice.

High Tides @ Snack Jack

Located directly on the beach, High Tides @ Snack Jack is a touch of Old Florida in Flagler Beach. In fact, the original restaurant dates back to 1947. It's the perfect ambiance for tacos, and the jerked tacos are superb. Fish or chicken is prepared with the flavorful Caribbean spices and served on flour or gluten-free tortillas with Snack Jack's spicy sauce, beans and rice on the side.

Flagler Fish Company

Delicious, fresh seafood is what lures diners to Flagler Fish Company, a few blocks from the ocean. Here, two tacos duel for the title of favorite. For the North Side, a choice of the day's catch is lightly blackened and topped with shredded cabbage, tomato, cilantro, avocado and a spicy creamy chipotle salsa. For the South Side, the blackened fish comes with grilled onions, mushrooms, lettuce, tomatoes, sour cream and an avocado herb sauce. Don't have just one; it's better to order both to compare!

A1A Burrito Works

The Mexican UFO at A1A Burrito Works may not technically be a taco, but it's too good not to include. Pick your protein, pick your heat level, and then sit at a picnic table to enjoy the delicious tacos and panoramic views of the beach. One bite of the chewy, crunchy and cheesy Mexican UFO and you'll see why locals say it is out of this world.
