Vessel Sandwich Company

Q: What inspired you to become a chef/restaurant owner?

BK: I've been working in kitchens since I was 14 years old. I tried going to college and other jobs but always ended up back at a restaurant. Eventually my father suggested culinary school. I went to a small school in Asheville, NC. (A-B Tech) in the mid 90's. This profession pretty much chose me.

Q: What is the most popular dish at Vessel?

BK: Kale salad with preserved lemon dressing, croutons, golden raisins and shaved Parmesan. This salad is all about the dressing. I cure the lemons in salt for at least 30 days. The cured rinds are used with a little sugar, vinegar and oil. The dressing compliments the kale perfectly, bitter, salty and sweet. "Hot fried chicken feathers" our smoked chicken breast is used to make this appetizer. It is pulled apart then dredged in flour and flash fried then tossed in our "hot fry" sauce. The sauce is a combo of spicy and sweet that is inspired by the original "Nashville hot fried chicken." I was a chef in Nashville for many years.

Q: What are 5 kitchen ingredients/tools you can't live without?

BK: Food processor, offset serrated knife, stick blender, kosher salt, the freshest ingredients I can find.

Golden Lion Café Flagler Beach

your toes in the sand while sipping freshly made margaritas at this laid-back outdoor beach bar. To get a better view of the beach, kick back and relax on the rooftop, where several tables are available.

THE FOOD & DRINK: A Flagler Beach staple for more than 20 years and voted Florida's #I Beach Bar, Golden Lion Cafe has a wide range of beachside-inspired and casual dishes from fish and chips, to shrimp avocado salad, to lobster guacamole tostadas. Other items on the menu include burgers, mahi mahi sandwiches, Philly cheesesteaks and fried calamari. While there, ask about the restaurant's signature key lime tartar sauce that keeps guests coming back for more. Order a pitcher of beer to share with your friends or a glass of wine to sip while watching the sunset.
