LOCALLY OWNED

Flagler Beach

"Where the Food Rivals the View"

Tortugas Florida Kitchen & Bar

THE VIBE:

Enjoy stunning ocean views by day and live music, fireside, by night. This dining spot is known for its "Floribbean" cuisine, so sample some of the signature dishes like bacon-wrapped plantains, shrimp and grits and the Flagler Fish Reuben. Oh, and since you're in Florida, the Key lime pie is a must for dessert.

Saltwater Crocs Grill

THE VIBE:

This casual, outdoor eatery serves up delicious hotdogs with a twist. Try tasty combinations like the BLT Dog, a bacon-wrapped fried hotdog with lettuce, tomato and mayo, and the Tiki Dog, a bacon-wrapped fried hotdog with diced pineapple, red onions and BBQ sauce. Also on the menu is a variety of burgers, fried seafood, sandwiches and even alligator. Gather around a picnic table in the family-friendly courtyard overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, and dig in.

Break-Awayz

THE VIBE:

Fresh fish, cold brews and an ocean view, it's all at Break-Awayz.

The laid-back beach bar serves seafood tapas style, perfect for sampling and sharing. Must-try dishes include the tuna poke nachos, blackened mahi bites and a variety of sliders. Pair them with one of more than 100 bottled and draft beers and shoot a round of pool on the outdoor pool table.

Java Joint

THE VIBE:

With its dog-friendly outdoor deck, delicious coffees and hearty breakfast, Java Joint has been a local's favorite for more than a decade. Savor the crab cakes benedict, heaping breakfast burritos and fresh salads while taking in the ocean views. The restaurant also has delicious cappuccinos, lattes, bloody mary's and champagne cocktails.

IN THE KITCHEN

Johnny Lulgjuraj

Oceanside Beach Bar & Grill

1848 S. Oceanshore Blvd. Flagler Beach, FL 386.439.6345

Q: What is the atmosphere like at Oceanside?

JL: We are right on the ocean so our ocean view, with the unique coquina sands, sunrises and moonrises make the first floor patio and second floor deck with full bar very popular. The fresh ocean breeze really enhances the dining experience; you can almost taste the ocean at Oceanside.

Q: How did you break into the business?

JL: Growing up my mom and dad had the restaurant. I remember walking into the restaurant when I was 8 or 9, putting on an apron, busing tables, watching my dad handle customers and the cash register. It was fun. In 2010 my brother called and said the restaurant went up for sale and that he might be able to get it. We opened in eight months after a complete remodel.

Q: Tell us about some of your most popular dishes.

JL: Perhaps the most popular is our Beer Battered Fish and Chips where we use Yuengling beer in the batter, but another favorite is the Shrimp and Grits that has applewood smoked bacon, caramelized onion, heavy cream and a little magic seasoning we have with some parmesan, some garlic, some spices...

We truly try to hit that ocean of flavor at Oceanside.

Q: And the most important ingredient for running a successful oceanside restaurant?

JL: My momma always said make everyone happy; no matter what never say no. We care about making you happy as a guest; if you are happy everyone is happy.

Golden Lion Café

Flagler Beach

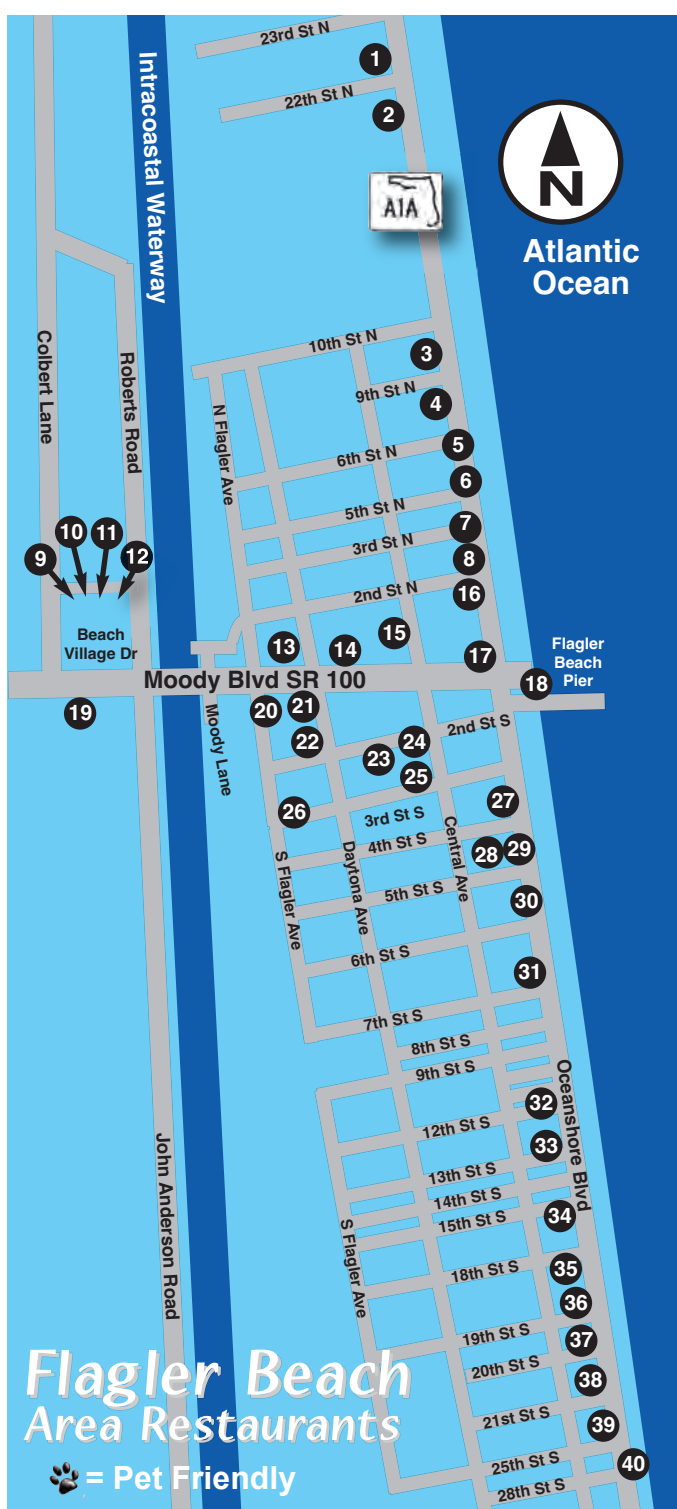

THE VIBE : Dig your toes in the sand while sipping freshly made margaritas at this laid-back outdoor beach bar. To get a better view of the beach, kick back and relax on the rooftop, where several tables are available.

THE FOOD & DRINK : A Flagler Beach staple for more than 20 years and voted Florida's #1 Beach Bar, Golden Lion Cafe has a wide range of beachside-inspired and casual dishes from fish and chips, to shrimp avocado salad, to lobster guacamole tostadas. Other items on the menu include burgers, mahi mahi sandwiches, Philly cheesesteaks and fried calamari. While there, ask about the restaurant's signature key lime tartar sauce that keeps guests coming back for more. Order a pitcher of beer to share with your friends or a glass of wine to sip while watching the sunset.

mamaling Palm Coast

THE VIBE : If you're in the mood to spend an evening with friends sharing delicious dishes and sipping on delicate cocktails, mamaling Asian Street Food is the place for you. The decor and ambiance of the dining room is homey, almost as if you've walked into a family-friend's home filled with treasures and art of Southeast Asia.

THE FOOD & DRINK : mamaling is the latest project from chef Hung Huynh, winner of Bravo's "Top Chef" award in 2007. Explore the expansive menu of pho, ramen, Korean tacos, steamed buns, kimchi pancakes and lemongrass coconut curry. The Korean crispy chicken wings and adobo pork clay pot - a delicious mix of green beans, black pepper, caramel and egg - are always crowd pleasers.

Captain's BBQ Hammock

THE VIBE : With the very first scent of cooked meats wafting in the air, you know you've come to the right place. Located in a small-country style cottage on the Intracoastal Waterway, you'll feel welcome and at home in the intimate setting of Captain's BBQ. Sit outside and enjoy the patio with wooden bar stools and side tables facing the water. The outdoor smoker lets you know this place is an authentic barbecue house.

THE FOOD & DRINK : The stars of the show are pulled pork, beef brisket and ribs, with plenty of side options like traditional mac and cheese, canned beets, baked beans and cornbread to finish off the plate. Save room for the homemade cheesecakes—reputed to be among the best in the region.

Top Tacos to Savor in Flagler Beach

Palm Coast and the Flagler Beaches is a haven for foodies, with many diverse restaurants serving delicious and unique fare. If you're craving tacos during your beach visit, you'll find the best right here. Whether you want them traditional or tropical, spicy or savory, served with stunning ocean vistas or paired with a delicious margarita, you'll get your taco fix in when you visit Flagler Beach.

Here is your taco trail road map:

Java Joint

A cup of the area's finest coffee and views of the sun rising over the ocean are what brings visitors and locals to Java Joint, but it's the scallop tacos that keeps them here through lunch. The scallops are grilled or blackened, served on soft tacos and topped with coleslaw, diced tomatoes, cheese, sour cream and salsa.

Turtle Shack

Across from the beach, you'll find the bright turquoise blue Turtle Shack. The cozy family-run eatery serves mahi-mahi tacos with the right amount of heat. The blackened mahi-mahi comes with crispy lettuce, fresh tomatoes and cheese. You'll love that the meal comes with three tacos since you'll definitely want more than one.

Break-Awayz

Heading toward downtown Flagler, your next spot for tacos with water views is Break-Awayz. A little bit Hawaiian and a little bit Asian, the poke tacos are packed with flavor. Sushi-grade raw tuna is marinated in sesame oil, ponzu, sesame seeds and green onions. It is then topped with Asian ginger slaw, wasabi aioli and green onions and served on three flour tortillas. Enjoy the poke tacos with a side of cold brew. The restaurant has more than 100 draft or bottled beers to choose from.

Golden Lion Café

Delicious seafood and a picture-perfect beachside location are a few reasons why Golden Lion Café is Palm Coast and the Flagler Beach's most-awarded restaurant. Its Fresh Catch & Coconut Shrimp Taco is always a crowd pleaser. The day's fish is topped with coconut shrimp for a unique combination. Lettuce and shredded cheddar cheese come next, and the tacos are served with Golden Lion's tangy Key lime tartar sauce.

Funky Pelican

Cast a line or stroll along the iconic Flagler Beach Pier, then enjoy tacos steps away at the Funky Pelican. Feast on the decadently fried lobster tacos while taking in the panoramic ocean views. Juicy bites of lobster are served on warm flour tortillas with citrus slaw, pico de gallo, cheddar jack cheese and cilantro cream, with black beans and rice on the side.

The Anchor

Cruising south on A1A you can't miss the giant anchor that marks the next stop on the taco trail. Friendly staff, tasty seafood and a daily happy hour keep locals and visitors coming back to The Anchor. Its grilled shrimp tacos come with mango pico de gallo, shredded cabbage and citrus aioli. Order them with a side of sweet potato fries.

Tortugas Florida Kitchen & Bar

Enjoy Floribbean cuisine, live music and a two-story outdoor patio overlooking the Atlantic Ocean at Tortugas Florida Kitchen & Bar. This is the place to go to kick your vacation into high gear. Here, locals rave about the pork and pineapple tacos. Slow roasted mojo pulled pork is topped with homemade coleslaw and pineapple salsa. They're even better with one of Tortugas' hand-pressed margaritas.

Island Grille

A restored 1920s mansion brings a retro feel to the Island Grille at the Topaz Motel and Hotel. The restaurant is located near the inn's main entrance, with large windows providing ocean views. You'll definitely want to try the swordfish tacos. The fish is marinated in garlic and lime and topped with sweet and sour slaw, mango avocado salsa and Sriracha cream, and comes with a side of black beans and rice.

High Tides @ Snack Jack

Located directly on the beach, High Tides @ Snack Jack is a touch of Old Florida in Flagler Beach. In fact, the original restaurant dates back to 1947. It's the perfect ambiance for tacos, and the jerked tacos are superb. Fish or chicken is prepared with the flavorful Caribbean spices and served on flour or gluten-free tortillas with Snack Jack's spicy sauce.

Flagler Fish Company

Delicious, fresh seafood is what lures diners to Flagler Fish Company, a few blocks from the ocean. Here, two tacos duel for the title of favorite. For the North Side, a choice of the day's catch is lightly blackened and topped with shredded cabbage, tomato, cilantro, avocado and a spicy creamy chipotle salsa. For the South Side, the blackened fish comes with grilled onions, mushrooms, lettuce, tomatoes, sour cream and an avocado herb sauce. Don't have just one; it's better to order both to compare!

A1A Burrito Works

The Mexican UFO at A1A Burrito Works may not technically be a taco, but it's too good not to include. Pick your protein, pick your heat level, and then seat at a picnic table to enjoy the delicious tacos and panoramic views of the beach.

One bite of the chewy, crunchy and cheesy Mexican UFO and you'll see why locals say it is out of this world.
