Palm Coast AND THE FLAGLER BEACHES

Where We Are

Located on the northeast coast of Florida, Palm Coast and the Flagler Beaches is 31 miles south of St. Augustine and 24 miles north of Daytona Beach, bordered on the east by 19 miles of Atlantic Ocean.

How To Get Here

Palm Coast and the Flagler Beaches is only 24 miles from Interstate 4 and is approximately equal distance between the Orlando and Jacksonville metropolitan areas. Interstate 95, Exit 284 at State Road 100 (Bunnell and Flagler Beach) is the closest exit to the beach from Maine to Miami -

Just 3 miles!

Major airlines serve the nearby Daytona Beach International Airport, Orlando International Airport, and Jacksonville Airport. Private aircraft and corporate jet aircraft can land at the Flagler County Airport off S.R. 100.

DAY TRIPS

St. Augustine (30 minutes north) - Founded in 1565, St. Augustine is America's "Oldest City" that has a 17th-century fort, horse-drawn carriages, a lighthouse and an alligator farm. www.floridashistoriccoast.com

Daytona Beach (30 minutes south) - Known for its drive-on beaches, Daytona is also home to the Daytona 500 and PGA. Take a tour at the World Center of Racing - Daytona International Speedway - visit the world-class Museum of Arts and Sciences or climb the second tallest lighthouse in Florida. www.daytonabeach.com

Jacksonville (One hour north) - The largest city in Florida in terms of both population and land area, Jacksonville features a riverside area, downtown theaters, a zoo and is the home to the Jacksonville Jaguars. www.visitjacksonville.com

Orlando (90 minutes west) - Orlando is one of the world's most popular vacation destinations. The area boasts multiple theme parks including Walt Disney World® Resort, Universal Orlando® Resort, SeaWorld® Orlando and the new Legoland® Florida. www.visitorlando.com
