

Carriage Rides in Fort Wayne

Horse and carriage rides. Is there anything more romantic or sentimental? Especially for those once-in-a-lifetime occasions you want commemorate, but also for those otherwise normal nights out when you just feel like doing something special. If you are visiting Fort Wayne or are just downtown for an event, why not book a carriage to make your night complete?

Camelot Carriage Rides

In business since 1997, Camelot Carriage Rides is a family-owned and family-run business. Camelot's horses are Draft horses- White Percheron and Black Clydesdale, and the carriages are white Vis-a-Vis, which can be open or fully enclosed. You can also choose a full-size wagon for large groups.

Details: Rides begin and end at Don Hall's Gas House & Takaoka downtown, although special locations can be negotiated.

Call 260-223-2417 for more information. For tours in and around downtown Fort Wayne, $35 gets you half an hour, and $65 one hour.

Rosewood Carriage Rides

In business since 2003, Rosewood is based in Hometown, but serves Fort Wayne and the surrounding areas. A majestic Percheron Draft horse pulls each carriage so you can sit back and enjoy the leisurely pace of a horse-drawn carriage ride.

Details: Rides begin and end at Don Hall's Gas House & Takaoka downtown, although special locations can be negotiated. To tour downtown Fort Wayne, $35 gets you half an hour, and $70 one hour.

To make special arrangements, call 260-637-5261.

Sentimental Journey Carriage Rides

Like Camelot and Rosewood, Sentimental Journey has both carriages for a more intimate ride and larger wagons for big groups. Sentimental Journey began in 1993 and offers three elegant white carriages and four beautiful horses to make your occasion spectacular.

Details: Rides begin and end at Don Hall's Gas House & Takaoka downtown, although special locations can be negotiated. $35 gets you half an hour, and $70 one hour for tours of downtown Fort Wayne. Most days, 24-hour notice is all you need to book your ride!

Call 260-341-1133 to arrange special occasions.

Insider's Tip: While all three companies provide heavy blankets for your comfort, don't forget to bundle up!
