

Make a Splash in Fort Wayne

As a “Playful City USA,” Fort Wayne offers dozens of options for great FREE outdoor fun (Pools may charge admissions). Come play in one of the ten FREE splash pads conveniently located all around the community:

Buckner Park

This park features a large open-air pavilion with picnic tables and restrooms, a playground with two new playsets and swings, a splash pad, and a trail that runs around the open area behind the playground.

Franklin Park

This unique park features architecture from the old school on the grounds, and a fun splash pad for all.

Jury Pool (New Haven)

A destination in itself, Jury Pool in New Haven is loaded with amenities that make it one of the most well-loved pools in the area. (Splash pad and Pool)

Kreager Park

Kreager offers softball fields, Taylor’s Dream: Boundless Playground with splash pad, soccer fields, many natural open spaces for flying a kite, tennis courts, and .95 miles of the Rivergreenway trail.

Headwaters Park

Headwaters Park is the main location for festivals ear round. The park also features a splash fountain that is open in the summer months! Wander this park for a variety of views of downtown Fort Wayne, or take a bike ride on some of the paths and trails.

McCormick Park

This park features a covered picnic area and an enclosed pavilion available for rental. This park also boasts a basketball court, playground and splash pad.

McMillen Park

This park features playgrounds, a golf course, pavilions, athletic fields, basketball courts, and more. (Splash pad and Pool)

Memorial Park

From baseball diamonds and basketball courts to a playground and swimming pool there is a lot to offer. (Splash pad and Pool)

Northside Park

Located across from Northside High School, the park is full of fun amenities, including tennis courts, soccer fields, and a deluxe pool and slide. (Pool only)

Riverside Gardens Park (Leo-Cedarville)

This park lies between the towns of Leo-Cedarville and Grabill, off Schwartz Road. The large, open park features a splash pad, play creek, and playground, along with other amenities.

Shoaff Park

Located just off of St. Joe Road this a great park for a variety of reasons. This park features a baseball diamonds, a golf course, Frisbee/disc golf course, boating access to the St. Joe river, trails, a playground and splash pad, and 2 pavilions available for rentals.

Robert E. Meyers Park in Parkview Field

If you’re downtown, have a splash in the Robert E. Meyers park splash fountain located within Parkview Field. With a splash fountain area, an amphitheater and performance stage that overlooks Parkview Field you can enjoy the game and a splash. If you wish to splash in the park, remember the park will close 3 hours prior to activities in Parkview Field, but it is open during activities with your entrance fee.

Waynedale Park

If you’re towards the southern part of Fort Wayne, make a stop at Waynedale Park. This park features a basketball court, tennis courts, access to trails, a pavilion that’s available for rentals, a playground and a splash pad!