

DAY ONE: MORNING

Perk up with a cup of Joe at Fort Worth's newest coffee shop/pub, BREWED. Located in the Near Southside District off of Magnolia Avenue, this trendy shop is the perfect place to stop for brunch with the girls or for a quick pick-me-up!

Once you've met your coffee quota, hit the streets for some of the best shopping around. Whether you're looking to shop high-end at Neiman Marcus in Ridgmar Mall or prefer one-of-a-kind pieces from boutiques like Teskey's Uptown (where rock'n'roll meets cowboy soul), Fort Worth has it all. Thirty blocks of independent shops stretch out in the Camp Bowie District. While specialty boutiques like Coyote Urban, Ann Taylor Loft, Earth Bones, Leddy's at Sundance and Retro Cowboy line the streets in dazzling Sundance Square, 35-blocks of shopping, dining and entertainment in the heart of downtown.

For Western-inspired articles, take home a custom-steamed cowboy hat from Fincher's White Front Western Wear or a pair of handcrafted boots from M.L. Leddy's. Both stores, including nearby Maverick Western Wear, have in-shop bars so shoppers can sip while browsing for souvenirs. More than 25 unique shops supply a host of Western treasures in Stockyards Station, from rope art and jewelry to Texas-style spices, salsas and marinades. Well-known brand Justin Boots is also headquartered in Fort Worth and is a great place to purchase an affordable pair of boots at a discounted price.

AFTERNOON

After you've shopped till you've dropped, grab a bite to eat at any of our renowned restaurants. Whether dining downtown at Capital Grille or Del Frisco's, Pirhana Killer Sushi in Sundance Square, Risky's BBQ in the Stockyards National Historic District or Brownstones in the West 7th District, you won't be disappointed. Follow up lunch with a relaxing walk through the Fort Worth Botanic Garden – the oldest botanic garden in the state - then stop by the Cupcakery or Schokolade Chocolate in Sundance Square for an afternoon snack.

EVENING

Come evening, dinner in Fort Worth is an experience all its own. With Chefs like Tim Love, Blaine Staniford, Jon Bonnell and Molly McCook in the kitchen, your taste buds are in for a culinary treat. Restaurants in order of chef include: The Woodshed Smokehouse and Lonesome Dove Western Bistro (among many), GRACE, Bonnell's Fine Texas Cuisine and WATERS, and Ellerbe Fine Foods.

Afterwards, enjoy a nightcap at any of the City of Cowboys and Culture's swanky nightlife venues. Listen to the local talent at Live Oak Music Hall and Lounge in the Near Southside District; sooth your jazzy soul at Scat Jazz Lounge, recently named one of the Top 100 Jazz Clubs in the World by Downbeat magazine; or dance the night away at Billy Bob's Texas – the world's largest honky-tonk.

Rest up after a long day at any of our luxurious hotels, boutiques or bed and breakfasts – we have it all.

DAY TWO: MORNING

Wake up to tradition at Paris Coffee Shop in the Near Southside District. This mom and pop shop is one of Fort Worth's oldest family-owned restaurants and has been around since the Great Depression. After breakfast, head on out to the Stockyards National Historic District for some Texas-sized fun. Here you'll witness the world's only twice-daily cattle drive put on by the Fort Worth Herd; held daily at 11:30 a.m. and 4 p.m. When you're done, scoot on over to the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame and the Stockyards Museum to learn about the history and Western heritage of the city.

AFTERNOON

Fort Worth is king of cowboy cuisine, so grab some grub at local favorites like Angelo's BBQ, Railhead BBQ, Cooper's BBQ and more. Or, take your taste buds south of the border at Joe T. Garcia's, Cantina Laredo, Mi Cocina and Lanny's Alta Cocina. Once you've refueled, immerse yourself in the artistic side of things in the Fort Worth Cultural District. One of the largest arts districts in the nation (yes, you read that right), the district features five internationally recognized museums in a beautiful park-like setting. Boasting accolades like "America's Best Small Museum" (Kimbell Art Museum) and one of the "World's Most Beautiful Museums" by Travel+Leisure (Modern Art Museum), it's no wonder why the district is a must see!

After an eye-appealing venture, please your palate with Texas wines at Cowtown Winery in the Stockyards National Historic District, one of Fort Worth's full production wineries. In the West 7th District, Times Ten Cellars offers a number of specialties and local wines, small plates and decadent desserts. Light Catcher Winery & Bistro is part of the North Texas Cross Timbers Wine Trail and is an ultra-premium boutique Texas winery, perfect for a cheese and wine tasting.

Melt the stress away at any of our luxurious spas: Mokara Spa in the Omni Fort Worth Hotel, Spa Beaubelle in the Sheraton Fort Worth, Aveda Moda Salon and Spa in the West 7th District or the European Skincare Institute in the Camp Bowie District.

EVENING

If you're still feeling hungry, Fort Worth isn't only king of cowboy cuisine, but of affordable eats. Hacienda San Miguel in the West 7th District serves up traditional Mexican cuisine in an upscale atmosphere. A few blocks over, try your hand at Rodeo Goat (no roping required) for a house-ground organic hamburger you're sure to remember; new hamburger masterpieces are frequently created to battle it out for a coveted spot on the menu.

The trip may be over, but there's much more to see. Don't forget to book your next girlfriend getaway at www.FortWorth.com for exclusive deals and packages.
