

GET EXCITED TO Get Away

FREDERICK, MARYLAND

From cozy cafes to bustling craft breweries to breathtaking trails, there's always something new and exciting to explore.

History

Come face-to-face with history at Frederick County's variety of unique museums, historic buildings, and interactive attractions that bring the past to life.

Downtown Frederick

Grab a drink on an open-air patio or indulge in locally-owned restaurants ranging from classic pub fare to global cuisine. Follow live music down Carroll Creek, soak in the vibrant art scene, and discover a medley of eclectic shops.

Covered Bridges

Explore country roads to see three historic covered bridges on a self-guided driving tour through the rolling hills with mountain views.

Craft Beverages

Blending traditional tastings with rotating offerings of unexpected flavors, the creators of our thriving craft beverage industry promise to make every visit a one-of-a-kind experience.

Stay the Night

Frederick is home to more than 20 branded hotels, historical inns, and countryside retreats.

NEW: Opening in 2023 is the Visitation Academy Hotel in the heart of Downtown Frederick. This historic property turned Marriott hotel will have 68 boutique hotel style rooms, an on-site restaurant, and easy access to shopping and performance venues in Downtown Frederick.
