FREDERICK, MARYLAND

From cozy cafes to bustling craft breweries to scenic train rides, there's always something new and exciting to explore.

History

Come face-to-face with history at Frederick County's variety of unique museums, historic buildings, and interactive attractions that bring the past to life. Learn the story of Catocin Iron Furnace through conserved artifacts and interpretive exhibits at the Museum of the Iron Worker. Explore the medical story of the Civil War at the National Museum of Civil War Medicine.

Downtown Frederick

Grab a drink on an open-air patio or indulge in locally-owned restaurants ranging from classic pub fare to global cuisine. Follow live music down Carroll Creek, soak in the vibrant art scene, and discover a medley of eclectic shops. In the winter (November-March), experience Sailing Through the Winter Solstice, with over 25 lighted boats along Carroll Creek.

Covered Bridges

Explore country roads to see three historic covered bridges on a self-guided driving tour through the rolling hills with mountain views. All three bridges are accessible via motorcoach with directions on our website.

Stay the Night

Frederick is home to more than 20 branded hotels, historical inns, and countryside retreats.

NEW: Opening in 2024 is the Visitation Academy Hotel in the heart of Downtown Frederick. This historic property turned Marriott hotel will have 65 boutique hotel style rooms, an on-site restaurant, and easy access to shopping and performance venues in Downtown Frederick.

Craft Beverages

Blending traditional tastings with rotating offerings of unexpected flavors, the creators of our thriving craft beverage industry promise to make every visit a one-of-a-kind experience.

Walkersville Southern Railroad

Find history and adventure aboard Walkersville Southern Railroad. A wide variety of group excursion rides on vintage trains, including Mystery Dinner trains, and Jesse James Day.

Frederick Visitor Center

Located in Downtown Frederick and easily accessible from I-70, I-270 and Rt.15. Amenities include a motorcoach parking spot, large restrooms, illustrative exhibits, an orientation film, and small gift shop.
