Why Fredericksburg?

- 1

CLOSE TO MAJOR TEXAS CITIES
Fredericksburg is centrally located in Texas, about an hour from both Austin and San Antonio and their respective international airports. Fredericksburg is just four hours from Houston and Dallas, making travel easy for attendees.
- 2

GROUP EXPERIENCES TO REMEMBER
Fredericksburg has a variety of unique activities like trail rides, group yoga, historic dance halls, golfing, wildflower viewing, legendary shopping, and art galleries. Opportunities for memorable team-building activities abound.
- 3

RED CARPET TREATMENT
Fredericksburg embodies true Texas hospitality and takes it seriously. In this small community, you will find first-rate service and friendly faces.

TOP-NOTCH ATTRACTIONS
From history to culture to the great outdoors and everything in between, Fredericksburg's attractions are top notch. Explore two nationally accredited museums and state and national parks, as well as numerous wineries, breweries, and distilleries.

Insider Tip: Midweek, Sunday–Thursday, is a great time for groups to visit. Take advantage of perks like fewer crowds, more hotel availability, and more relaxed shopping and wine tasting experiences. Groups are encouraged to book early if looking to visit during peak times, April–May and October–December.

Unique Venues

National Museum of the Pacific War: This Smithsonian-Affiliated museum offers several venues for groups: a historic ballroom and mezzanine patio, gazebo & courtyard, Japanese Garden of Peace, a boardroom, Cailloux Education Center, and beautifully restored historic Ruff Haus, with spaces for 25 to 400 guests.

Dance Halls: Host your private event at one of Fredericksburg's two historic dance halls — Luckenbach Texas and Albert Dance Hall. Luckenbach Texas, made famous by Willie, Waylon & the Boys, is a great place to sit back and relax under 500-year-old oak trees and listen to great Texas music. Albert Dance Hall regularly holds dances and social gatherings and features live Texas music.

Theaters: Fredericksburg Theater Company produces musicals, dramas and comedies throughout the year. The theater also hosts special events and can be rented for meetings and catered receptions for up to 200 guests. Rockbox Theater holds a variety of live music shows and can be used for meetings, seminars, and more. Rockbox can hold over 350 guests.

Village-Style Lodging: Fredericksburg is home to several unique lodging options that have individual rooms for attendees to stay at the same location as well as provides space to host meetings, team-building activities, and group meals. Check out Hoffman Haus, Contigo Ranch, Odonata Escape, and more online.

Gillespie County Fair Grounds: Home to the longest, continuous county fair in Texas, the Gillespie County Fair Grounds hosts a variety of events throughout the year. The space includes a 14,000-square-foot hall with pavilions that can host public and private functions.

Large Event Spaces: Fredericksburg is home to a variety of wedding and event venues that boast beautiful indoor and outdoor spaces. These venues work great for large banquets but can also be reimagined for use by groups looking for a unique space to host meetings, retreats, and conferences.

Hotels with Meeting Space

Fredericksburg Inn & Suites is located on five beautiful acres alongside Barons Creek. The spacious accommodations and sparkling outdoor pools create the perfect setting for unique getaways and gatherings. The property features 103 total rooms (including 10 suites). The adjacent Barons Creek Conference Center can accommodate up to 175 attendees, while the Cypress Room accommodates up to 80 attendees.

The Inn on Barons Creek Spa & Conference Center features 90 luxury suites and the adjoining Walch Haus Conference Center which can accommodate up to 250 guests. The property also features an on-site catering kitchen, a full-service spa, and a heated pool, all within walking distance of Main Street.

The Hangar Hotel and Conference Center offers 50 luxury rooms at an adults-only property, just a few miles from downtown Fredericksburg. The themed hotel is also home to the Officer's Club, a themed bar and piano lounge, the Pacific Showroom, and the Airport Conference Center, which can accommodate up to 500 guests. Full-service catering is also available on-site.

Albert Hotel (coming 2024): For the first time since 2015, a new hotel will open in Fredericksburg. The Albert will be Fredericksburg's first full-service hotel. This boutique hotel will have 107 rooms and multiple dining options. The hotel will have customizable indoor and outdoor spaces to provide a backdrop for intimate gatherings and Texas-sized events.

Wineries, Breweries and Distilleries

Fredericksburg is at the heart of the Texas Wine Country and is home to more than 60 wineries, vineyards, and tasting rooms. In addition to wine, Fredericksburg's craft beer scene is growing and is home to several distilleries that produce locally crafted spirits. Many offer group experiences like tastings, pairings, tours, and more. Several also include indoor and outdoor meeting space, perfect for groups looking to find a work/play balance.
