Merry Weihnachten, y'all!

Mix an Old World German Christmas with warm Texas hospitality, and what you get is Christmastime in Fredericksburg, a month-long celebration of the holiday season. Whether it's our beautiful light-filled Marktplatz with its hand-carved, 26-foot tall, wooden Christmas pyramid, or events like the annual Tannenbaum Ball, or the nostalgic and gaily decorated shops filled with one-of-a-kind treasures, you'll find the whole town decked out in its holiday finest. Why, there's even an ice skating rink! Join us. In our historic Fredericksburg. For a Fröhliche Weihnachten you'll never forget. ★

Warm Up Your Kreditkarte

And get ready to shop! Because tucked away in over 150 shops, art galleries and boutiques, you'll find creations by a variety of local artists. Women's fashion ranging from vintage and hand-sewn to upscale contemporary. A staggering collection of home décor. Antiques, Western wear, antiquarian and Texana books. Gourmet food. Several shops selling award-winning wine from local wineries. You'll find something for everyone on your list, including yourself!

You'll have to remind yourself.
I'm shopping for others....

Architektur & Home Tour

Main Street becomes a veritable picture postcard with its magnificent lighting display dotting the silhouette of our historic shopping area. Venture out beyond Main Street, and you'll see many historic homes "dressed" for the season, too. But don't stop there. You can even go inside some of Fredericksburg's most beautiful residences during the annual Christmas Home Tour—an experience on the wish list of any Architektur or design lover.

Glide on the ice while making a new tradition of family fun!

Tannenbaum & Parade

On November 29, you won't want to miss the official lighting ceremony of our genuine German pyramid and community Christmas tree on our Main Street Marktplatz. It's wunderbar! Then, on December 6, take in the annual Light the Night Christmas Parade! It's enough to jump-start anyone's holiday cheer. This evening parade filled with floats, music, lights and fun provides plenty of picture-perfect moments for the whole family. Just smile and say "Käse"!

Winery events, home tours, parades
— all part of this Hill Country Christmas

Historisch Holidays

Take a trip back in time this holiday season! Visit the Lyndon B. Johnson State Park and Historic Site and attend the Christmas Tree Lighting and Evening Tour to get a unique opportunity to visit with the family of the late President and see how early German settlers decorated for the season at the Sauer-Beckmann Living History Farm. Or head into town and let the kids play at the Pioneer Museum's Kinderfest — where children can experience holiday customs from generations past.

Theater, Entertainment & Musik

If entertainment is on your wish list, then you won't be disappointed. From spectacular chorale concerts and theater productions to honky tonk dances, there's something to suit everyone in your group. There's even a live—and quite moving—drive-through play depicting the Biblical Christmas Journey. In fact, the best gift of the season just might be the calendar on the back. Read. Plan. Enjoy. And hold your Applaus till the end.

Wein Trail and Food

Forget milk and cookies for Santa. How about wine and chocolates! Celebrate the season with our many local wineries during the Christmas Wine Affair. Tastings, tours and special holiday entertainment abound during this time of year. And don't forget Fredericksburg's unique culinary diversity. You can savor authentic German cuisine or more adventurous Texas Hill Country fare. And very tasty desserts. Guten Appetit!
