"Frisco is many worlds in one. It's old and it's new. It's both comfort cooking and cutting-edge. A place where the jocks and the nerds can coexist. And with every new building, Frisco is both retaining its roots and rising to new heights. They say the only thing constant is change and it's fun to watch as this old railroad town changes to a full on daytripper destination."

Destination Overview

Centrally located in the U.S., Frisco is just 25 minutes north of downtown Dallas, and a convenient 25 minute drive from both Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport and Dallas Love Field Airport.

From shopping to sports, art and history, there are a variety of experiences you can enjoy when visiting Frisco.

Home to several professional sports organizations, including the Dallas Cowboys, FC Dallas, the Frisco RoughRiders, and PGA of America. Frisco is Sports City USA, and the ultimate sports destination.

Love to shop and dine? Frisco features more than 9 million square feet of retail and more than 400 restaurants to choose from.

When it comes to arts and culture, Frisco offers a public art trail, as well as the Texas Sculpture Garden, and a growing museum district that includes the Museum of the American Railroad, the National Videogame Museum, the Frisco Heritage Museum, and the National Soccer Hall of Fame.

News & Notable

Frisco, Texas is one of the fastest growing cities in the country. Looking ahead, there are numerous projects currently under construction and in the works including new hotels, attractions, as well as shopping and dining options for residents and visitors.

PGA of America & Omni PGA Frisco Resort Opening Spring 2023

In December 2018, the PGA of America announced plans to move its headquarters from Palm Beach Gardens, Florida, to Frisco, Texas, where it will anchor a 660-acre mixed-use development with a public-private investment worth more than half a billion dollars.

The new PGA of America headquarters is open and home to national player development and coaching programs. PGA Frisco is planning to host an unprecedented cadence of championships, with 23 already in the books for a 13-year span.

The project also includes an Omni PGA Frisco Resort. Opening spring 2023, the resort will feature 500 guest rooms and suites, 10 four-bedroom ranch houses, three pools (including an adults-only rooftop infinity pool), Lounge by Top Golf, and over 127,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor meeting and event space. An expansive retail and entertainment district will feature dining, shopping, and an outdoor stage. The resort will offer two 18-hole championship golf courses, a lighted 10-hole short course, and a lighted two-acre putting green, totaling 46 holes.

Fields Frisco

Located on the southwest corner of U.S. Highway 380 and Preston Road, Fields, a 2,544-acre mixed use development, is a project of Hunt Realty Investments and Karahan Companies that began development in 2021.

The project features topography like no other location in North Texas and will offer visitors and residents an experience completely catered to them. As a 15-minute city, parks, cafes, shopping, spas and more are easily accessible and redefining a well-lived life.

University of North Texas

The University of North Texas broke ground for its Frisco campus, which will be a satellite facility of its main campus in Denton, Texas. The $100 million investment will start with roughly 3,500 students in classes in 2023 and reach a potential of 25,000 students in 25 to 30 years. UNT at Frisco will be the only 4-year, tier 1 research university in the city.

The Star District Dishes Up Five New Restaurant Concepts

The Star District, a 91-acre entertainment district and the headquarters of the Dallas Cowboys is dishing up new restaurants and bars, opening in 2022 and 2023.

- Sidecar Social is a fun, outdoor concept featuring craft cocktails and bites, games, karaoke, live music, TVs, and an all-season patio (opening 2023).
- Snowbird Cocktail Lounge & Kitchen is an upscale Art Deco-inspired lounge with a tantalizing array of mixology cocktails, small bites, and music (opening 2022).

Frisco Brewing Company Taps into Frisco's Rail District

Frisco's historic Rail District will be getting its first brewery in 2023. Frisco Brewing Company will serve a variety of craft beers, seltzers, and cocktails. The 16,000-square-foot facility will house a brewery as well as restaurant, bakery, and butcher shop. In addition, a large 14,000-square-foot outdoor entertainment patio will host events and live music.

Hall Park Redevelopment

Hall Park, a 162-acre office park, is undergoing a $7 billion plan to redevelop the district over the next 20 years. Redevelopment plans include a 1,250-1,500-seat performing arts center, a new office tower, a boutique hotel, a 19-story luxury residential tower, 60 executive suites, and a 10,000-square-foot food hall. Construction started in 2022 on a new community park that will feature an 18,000-square-foot children's area, a 6,500-square foot dog park, event lawn, and performance pavilion. The park is expected to open in fall 2023.
