Hallandale's first container restaurant, KAO Bar & Grill, has officially opened. The two-story Argentine-American fusion concept features an alfresco patio with rotating live entertainment, intimate bar and private event spaces. Guests can expect flavorful Argentine grill-inspired dishes, including shareable tablas (grilled platters), Argentine-style pizzas, signature fusion sandwiches and more.

The Bite Eatery, the first food hall in Pompano Beach, has opened. It's located just a few blocks away from the beach and the Pompano Fishing Pier. The 250-seat venue features The Bite Bar, Taco Vibe, Moop Gelato, Beef Boyz, Deli Shack, The Lobster, Ceviche Time, Mama Mia, Abuelita's Cuban Bistro, and Yin and Yummy.

The House On The River has opened in the heart of downtown Fort Lauderdale and is located directly on the New River, in this region known as “The Venice of America.” The iconic structure is complemented by a charming eclectic use of vintage furniture with a modern twist, outfitted with mixed china, vibrant flowers and lush trees.

NEW CONVENTION CENTER

Phase one of the reimagined Greater Fort Lauderdale/Broward County Convention Center is now open and features 800,000 square feet of total space, a 350,000-square-foot exhibit hall, Water Taxi access and more. Completion of the $1.3 billion expansion is set for 2025 and will include waterfront ballrooms, a five-acre outdoor waterfront plaza and an 801-room, Omni headquarters hotel for a total of 1.2 million square feet.
