4. CHAIR'S REPORT | Mayor Beam Furr

Mayor Furr remarked on the opening of the Convention Center expansion and complimented the beautiful water view from the new executive boardroom. He stated, "what conference wouldn't want to come here." The TDC members all agreed that this expansion was a game changer. Mayor Levy commented that this investment is really going to generate a great return to the hospitality industry, and this will fill hotel rooms far and wide. President Ritter stated that Visit Lauderdale is very excited and there would be no IPW 2026 without this expansion. Mayor Furr said there were a lot of hurdles to reach to get this completed and to see it come to fruition is fantastic. Discussion ensued.

5. PRESIDENT'S REPORT | Stacy Ritter, CDME, President/CEO, Visit Lauderdale

President Ritter noted that the new CVB building will be opening at the beginning of December on the site of the Convention Center on the first two floors. The next TDC Meeting will be held in the new CVB conference room. The Cultural Division has been very interested in the empty space on the third floor of that building. For the record President Ritter read the Disclosures and Conflicts Form 18 memorandum filed by Ramola Motwani from the TDC Meeting on August 13th. This form recused her from voting on the proposed 2026 budget for the Greater Fort Lauderdale Convention and Visitor's Bureau which included funding for the Fort Lauderdale Air Show. Ms. Motwani's son, Dev Motwani is owner of the Fort Lauderdale Air Show.

6. Tourism Sponsorship Applications | Stacy Ritter, CDME, President/CEO, Visit Lauderdale

a) Florida Society of the Sons of the American Revolution

The Sons of the American Revolution was founded in 1889. Their mission is to honor Revolutionary War patriot ancestors by promoting patriotism, serving our communities and educating future generations about our nation's founding principles. This will be the first and only monument in the US commemorating this Marine event. The monument will be located at the Fisher Family Pier in Pompano Beach. President Ritter reported that Visit Lauderdale's internal review group recommends $10,000. Discussion ensued.

Mayor Josh Levy made a motion to recommend a $10,000 sponsorship. Seth Feldman seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

b) Namaste

This is a free friendly outdoor festival. Namaste is a flagship South Florida cultural celebration that brings together vibrant Indian music, dance, art, and cuisine in one immersive experience. This event is held at the Pompano Beach Amphitheater.

Visit Lauderdale has funded this event previously. Namaste attracts 10,000 visitors every year, growing increasingly from outside the county. President Ritter reported that Visit Lauderdale's internal review group recommends $ 10,000. Discussion ensued.

Mayor Josh Levy made a motion to recommend a $10,000 sponsorship. Camasha Cevieux seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

c) Jazz in the Gardens Women's Impact Luncheon

Visit Lauderdale had funded Jazz in the Gardens for many years. Visit Lauderdale was directed to reach out to Jazz in the Gardens Women's Impact Luncheon to tell them they can apply again. Discussion ensued.

The TDC discussed this sponsorship and decided to take no action.

7. Broward Cultural Affairs-Ignite Broward | Phil Dunlap, Director Broward Cultural Division

Mr. Dunlap wanted to thank Visit Lauderdale for sponsoring IGNITE Broward Art and Light Festival for the past five years. He presented a PowerPoint presentation with the wrap up of the 2025 Ignite Broward Festival with a look toward the 2026 IGNITE in February. Details for 2026 will be announced this Thursday at Broward Cultural Division's State of the Arts address at the Convention Center. The 2025 iteration of Ignite Broward was at three locations: Esplanade Park, MadArts in Dania Beach and Arts Park in the City of Hollywood. Ignite 2025 was extended from five days to ten, had over 80,000 attendees with 32% of those coming from outside of Broward. Advertising was done on such key media outlets as Deco Drive, Channel 7 News and Miami New Times. Ignite had an audience growth of 12% over their social media with almost 700,000 total impressions. There will be more than 12 plus artists and more than 22 artworks across locations for 2026. Discussion ensued.

8. Council Member Comment and Discussion of Non-Agenda Items

Mayor Levy mentioned the Boat Show in Fort Lauderdale this weekend and questioned whether the new plaza at the Convention Center would be available. President Ritter confirmed that the Convention Center Plaza will be open for people to explore during the Boat Show.

President Ritter discussed the filming of VL's new brand campaign. Visit Lauderdale will be launching the campaign on New Years Eve on CNN with Anderson Cooper and Andy Cohen Live on a yacht at Pier 66. There will be billboards lit up, located behind them with our new brand campaign.

Mayor Levy said that there was a bill filed in the state legislature on the changing of Broward County's name. This bill is to be placed on the ballot. Mayor Levy feels there is a case to be made to discuss a recommendation from the TDC or staff to supply information on the impact of the name change to Lauderdale County. Mayor Furr said he can bring this to the county commission when they have a discussion and ask for their analysis.

The TDC members thanked Mayor Furr for his year as the President of the TDC. Ina Lee wanted to thank him for driving the initiative on elevating the taxi experience in Broward County and the new ordinance that has been written. Ms. Lee wanted to acknowledge President Ritter for being honored by HSMAI (Hospitality Sales and Marketing Association International) receiving legend of the year.

9. PUBLIC COMMENTS NOTION TO ADJOURN

Rozeta Mahboubi with Florida Restaurant and Lodging Association just came back from their state board meeting and there were concerns about the TDT during legislation. The decision on how the TDT dollars can be spent may be decided by the county and not the state. Ms. Mahboubi stated If this happens, we as a county need to be prepared and be on the same page as to how we want to protect our TDT dollars for marketing.

10. MOTION TO ADJOURN

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Tim Petrillo and was seconded by Mayor Trantalis. The meeting was adjourned with no objection at 11:00am.
